

Joe Whitlock and Helen Kay Dean observe construction on campus.

Terri Thompson gives us all HAZWOPER refresher training. (HAZardous Waste OPerations & E_mergency R_esponse)

Above, Joe Whitlock and Ron Hamilton recently gave Scaffolding training to Physical Plant staff here on campus.

Above, EH&S's Kimberly Morris recently conducted a mock radioactive material spill as a practice session for the department.

Environmental Health & Safety

"2006: The Year in Review"

Completed.....

- » 181 chemical fume hood surveys
- » 151 audits of laboratories
- » Arranging and scheduling of 110 Dr. appointments through our WSU Occupational Health Program for staff and students
- » Processing of 77 occupational injury reports, and 43 non-occupational injury reports
- » 613 radiation laboratory compliance surveys
- » Calibration of 50 radiation survey meters
- » Arranging for respirator fit tests for 49 staff

Above: David Hurwitz took advantage of EH&S's community outreach program; radon detectors for your home.

- » Bloodborne Pathogens Training: 23 trained
- » Scaffolding Safety Training: 44 trained
- » Fall Hazard Awareness Training: 105 trained
- » Lab Safety Training: 200 trained
- » Forklift Training: 29 trained
- » Tow Motor Safety Training: 7 trained
- » Radiation Safety Training: 38 new, 115 refresher
- » Asbestos Awareness Training: 98 trained
- » Confined Space Awareness Training: 41 trained
- » Management and disposal of 14,196 lbs of chemical waste
- » Management and disposal of 9,361 lbs of infectious waste
- » Subsidized the recycling of 15,427 lbs of computer equipment

Responded to.....

- » 2 antifreeze spills
- » Formaldehyde spill
- » Various mold, odor and fume complaints
- » Drinking water complaints
- » 15 miscellaneous spills
- » 7 mercury spills
- » 2 fuel oil spills

Above, EH&S's Terri Thompson took the Fairborn Fire Department and the Regional Swat Team members on a tour of the various labs on campus, as well as the Hazardous Storage area and the Chlorine room at the Nutter Center.