

INTERNSHIPS

WHAT: SOC 433 01 - Internship: Corrections & Family

COURSE DESIGN: A computerized My Grades site, PILOT enhanced with access to Federal Criminological Agencies, Career Areas via Major, Physical Standards for Careers in Law Enforcement, a Discussion Site, Daily Calendar, on-line Syllabus with academic assignments, and more.

WHERE: Field Placement with "approved" agency and scheduled meetings with Dr. Adamitis in MH 289

WHEN: Arranged

WHO: Dr. Jim Adamitis

www.wright.edu/~jim.adamitis

Supervised field experience in corrections and family agencies (probation, parole, jail, juvenile, adult and aging), law enforcement, etc. Requires weekly activity progress reports, the submission of career/learning outcomes with performance indicators, an annotated bibliography relevant to one's field experience, and a paper synthesizing readings and field experience with stated outcomes.

