

SECTION ONE

In this section of the test, you see a series of pictures that tell a continuous story, and you are asked to tell the story that the pictures show. You should begin your story with the words, "One day last week." You should speak as accurately and in as much detail as you can.

Now study the pictures on this page for about one minute and then tell the story. (PAUSE FOR A MOMENT.)

Remember: we will be evaluating you on the way you express your ideas, not the actual ideas.

Once again, begin your story with the words, "One day last week." You may begin now.

SECTION TWO

Look at the picture in this section. You are going to be asked four questions about the picture. Keep in mind that there are many different ways the questions can be answered correctly, and that you should answer each question with one or more complete sentences. Now, take about one minute to study the picture silently before you hear the questions. (PAUSE FOR A MOMENT.) Remember that we are interested in the way you express your ideas, not the actual ideas.

Now, listen to and answer the following questions. Remember to say as much as you can for each question.

1. Where is this scene taking place?
2. What has just happened?
3. What is going to happen next?
4. How could this situation have been avoided?

SECTION THREE

In this section, you are asked to give your opinion on topics of general interest and to describe certain things. Be sure to say as much as you can when answering each question. Remember, this is a test of spoken English. Your score will be based on the way you express your IDEAS AND OPINIONS. THERE IS NO ONE CORRECT ANSWER TO EACH QUESTION.

- 1. Describe your home town. You can talk about size, location, climate, population, or any other characteristics of your choice.

- 2. If you were trying to convince someone to enter your field of study, what particularly attractive aspects of your major would you point out?

- 3. Since you have been in America, what differences between American students and students in your country have surprised you?

SECTION FOUR

In this section of the test, you see a notice describing activities of a club or organization. You are to explain this notice. Be sure to include all important details in your explanation.

For the notice below, imagine that you are a teacher and want to encourage your students to get information about travel abroad. First, study the notice silently for about one minute. (PAUSE FOR A MOMENT).

Remember to include all important details as you explain the notice to your class. You may begin now.
