

Appendix C Summerbridge Dayton Career Fair 2007

Event Evaluation - Student

1. What were your expectations for the Career Fair?

To learn about different jobs and maybe find and pursue a career that I find interesting.

I would get to see different jobs and what I would do.

I thought that the Career Fair would be boring.

My expectations were to learn about my job. To experience a job fair.

That it would be fun.

I thought it would be hard and it was for me because I am shy.

Just as they were.

My expectations were to do good in the mock interviews.

I really didn't have any expectations for the career fair.

I thought it would be harder.

I expected for this career fair to be exciting and challenging.

I expected to see a lawyer here.

My expectations were exact.

To be hired and have fun.

I learned to show eye contact.

Fun, exciting, nervous

Fun, surprises, nervousness

My expectations for the career fair were to learn new things about careers and what is needed to have a successful career.

I thought it was going to be more companies. I thought that it was going to be set up in little booths.

My expectations were to come here and learn how to interview for a job.

Fun.

Nice people with good job offers and a lot of money to give away.

My expectation for the career fair was that it was well prepared. It was very good to learn about your career.

I didn't really have any expectations for the career fair because I was here last year.

My expectations for the career fair were very good.

2. Do you feel you were adequately prepared for the Career Fair?

Yes, because I was here last year so I knew what was going to happen.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes, I did what I needed to do.

Kind of.

Not really because I didn't know what they were going to ask me.

No.

I was very adequately prepared for the Career Fair.

Yes, I do feel I was adequately prepared for the career fair.

Yes I had everything prepared.

I do feel I was adequately prepared for the career fair.

Yes I did because I had my resume ready.

Yes I think I was ready for the career fair.

Yes I was.

Yes but I got nervous.

Yes I do.

Yes I do.

Yes I do feel I was adequately prepared for the career fair.

Yes but not really. Because they asked me questions about real estate and I didn't know the answers.

No.

Yes.

Yes because I had everything I need.

Yes, because I know most of the requirements to be a computer software engineer.

No because one of the teachers lost my resume.

Yes I feel that I was adequately prepared because I knew what to say.

3. What did you enjoy most about the Career Fair?

The Martin Group – Saturn Company.

The Antioch Company and others because they said they would hire me.

I enjoyed that they showed me how to be and/or prepare for a job interview.

That they treat you like adults.

The people talking to you.

I enjoyed getting to know things about different careers.

The people who interviewed me.

Talking to the people that were hiring employees.

Meeting different people and learning different places/jobs.

The questions they asked us.

I enjoyed being interviewed by Brenda Cochran, a writer for the Dayton Weekly News.

I enjoyed getting to talk to people about the job I want.

I enjoyed everything.

Talking and being hired.

Candy and bookmarks.

The many different jobs.

I enjoyed talking to the people.

I enjoyed the items that were given to us. I enjoyed the Antioch Company.

That they gave us some of their company's things and I liked it all together.

I enjoyed learning about different kinds of jobs and preparing for the future.

Candy

Meeting the newspaper reporter.

I really enjoy the way I was able to express my feelings and opinions about my career.

The experience of meeting new people and imagining that you really wanted a job.

I enjoyed speaking to the firefighters the most.

4. What did you like the least about the Career Fair?

Too many hard questions.

Nursing.

My feet were hurting a lot.

Nothing really.

The people who seemed "full" of themselves.

I didn't like talking to people I don't know at first, but then I got over it.

It took too long.

Nothing.

The people talking too much.

There isn't anything to dislike.

Some of the interviewers were bland.

There wasn't a lawyer there.

Nothing.

Moving all around.

Lots of people to meet.

Real Living's place.

I pretty much liked everything.

I didn't have any problem with the career fair.

That some had boring conversations and did not catch my eye.

The questions.

The least I liked about the career fair was that most people weren't really there for my career.

Not really participating.

The thing that I liked least about the career fair was that some people spoke a little too much.

5. What did you learn from this experience?

What to do and say at a job interview.

What to do at a job interview.

That practice makes perfect.

To have a good resume.

I learned to be prepared.

How to go on an interview.

Yes.

How to speak to people and how it is when I really do go for a job interview.

How to properly greet someone.

I learned about being experienced in your field of interest in order to be the adequate person for the career of your choice.

I learned to study hard.

I learned how to speak and how to present myself during an interview.

Show eye contact.

All the jobs are a little the same.

How to write my resume correctly.

That you have to do and achieve a lot to succeed.

I learned that I need to have better answers to the questions and I should know what I'm talking about.

I learned from my experience to always talk professionally.

To be confident.

I can express myself.

I learned that you should always make eye contact with the other person and you should present yourself well.

6

That everything is important when you are being evaluated.

From this experience, I learned that I should speak well and write longer resumes.

6. What should we do to improve the Career Fair?

I think we should have a career day when we go job shadowing with the job you want to do when you get older.

More jobs that the kids are into.

Nothing.

Have us go to the job.

Get more careers.

I think you should have more careers.

Bring more businesses.

Have more of what the people (kids) want for their careers.

Nothing.

Have the SBD students write down the career that they look forward to taking place in and the careers that come up most frequently should definitely be at the career fair.

We should bring more people.

Show leadership.

The sitting down.

Have more people.

I think that your career fair is perfect.

I thought it was just fine.

Have more candy.

We should have more people come in so that it will be more fun.

Make sure the students get their resumes.

I don't think that it should be improved because I liked it and I thought it was perfect.

7. Are there any organizations or careers you would like to see at our Career Fair?

Different colleges.

Anything.

A real lawyer and teacher.

Acting and singing.

No.

Cardiologist.

Yes, the Navy and lawyers.

No.

Actually, I love journalism, so my career was present.

Yes, lawyers.

No because it is already enough.

Sony, Delphi

Track and field

I would like to see more career options; that's about it. This is a really good activity too.

More options of different careers.

Pharmacy and law

Marine biologist

No, but more.

Artistic jobs and theater

I would like to see a lawyer at the career fair.
