

Camp READ

(Reaching Everyone's Ability to Dream)
Wright State University Lake Campus
July 21 – August 1 (7:30 – 3:30)

Name _____ SSN _____

Address _____ City, State, Zip _____

Phone number _____ E-mail _____

Why should you be one of our Camp READ instructors? _____

Are you interested in being an assessor also? Yes No
(You must be present for the following dates: June 10, 11, 18, 19, 25, 26 (7:00-2:00) and July 9 (5:30-9:00). These times may vary from day to day.) You will be paid for being on the assessment team.

What is your experience working with children in this type of tutoring environment?

Camp READ instructor	Yes	No
Reading Center instructor	Yes	No
HOSTS (or other school tutoring sessions)	Yes	No
Other _____

Are you planning on taking any courses during the summer of 2003?
Yes No If so, please list _____

Do you have Work Study for the summer of 2003?
Yes No

T-Shirt size: S M L XL Other: _____

Signature _____ Date _____

You will be paid for being an instructor for Camp READ. You are responsible for doing all of the planning for your students at Camp READ. Camp READ is no easy task. We expect the most out of you while you are here. The students deserve the very best that you can give them! You will need to bring your lunch every day, as we only have half an hour to eat. You are required to be at every mini-lesson each morning.

This application does NOT guarantee you an Instructor or Assessor position for Camp READ. We will be in contact with you soon.

Application deadline is May 14, 2003. Please submit to Liane or Paula.