

The LEADER Consortium Presents

Keys to Academics' Success: Policies and Practices

SAVE THE DATE: Thursday March 8th, 10:30am to 4:00pm
University of Dayton - Alumni Center

A one-day mini-conference to promote awareness, discussion, and implementation of policies that foster equity and faculty success. Featured speakers include:

Diana Bilimoria, Ph.D. – Professor of Organizational Behavior at the Weatherhead School of Management, Case Western Reserve University. Dr. Bilimoria is co-author (with Xiangfen Liang) of Gender Equity in Science and Engineering: Advancing Change in Higher Education, a new (2011) study of the equity, diversity and inclusion outcomes of 19 universities funded by the NSF ADVANCE program.

Patricia Devine, Ph.D. – Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Dr. Devine's current research program explores how people manage intrapersonal and interpersonal challenges associated with prejudice and stereotyping in contemporary society.
