APPLICATION PROCESS:

TO WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY:

1. Apply to Wright State University Office of Admissions.
2. Send official transcript(s) to Office of Admissions.

TO THE COLLEGE OF NURSING AND HEALTH:

1. Submit BEACON application along with a copy of all transcripts. If courses are still in progress at the time of application, upon completion of the course(s), the transcripts with final grades are to be submitted immediately.
2. If you have not completed all of the prerequisites at the time of application, please describe your plan for completing those requirements. (All pre-requisites must be completed before classes begin in the spring).
3. Submit a current resume or curriculum vita to the College of Nursing and Health.
4. Submit a 300-word essay describing how you envision making a difference in the nursing profession for multi-cultural healthcare consumers. Focus on how you will practice nursing effectively for those persons who are underrepresented, disadvantaged, from rural areas, or those otherwise compromised in their ability to access illness prevention measures and medical treatment.
5. Submit two letters of reference from current or previous employer or faculty.
6. A photocopy of STNA coursework or LPN license or Paramedic license. Please draw a line through the copied form and sign your name on the line.

NOTE: No action will be taken on applications until all materials are received.

International students must submit all official transcript(s) to Wright State University International Office 2-3 months before applying to BEACON. (For further information call (937) 775-5745).
