

MVITA Executive Luncheon

Thursday – December 8, 2011

“Next Steps for the American Trade Agenda”

In October, Washington sent a message to the world: American trade policy is back in business. Congress approved trade agreements with South Korea, Colombia, and Panama with the support of large, bipartisan majorities just nine days after receiving implementing bills from the White House. These votes show that America can still lead on trade. Given the broad consensus that exports must play a central role in creating American jobs and boosting economic growth, we must capitalize on this momentum. It's time to think big. It's time to be bold. It's time to commit to an aggressive new international trade and investment agenda.

Join us on Thursday, December 8th to hear an encouraging presentation on creating jobs and economic growth through exporting in 2012.
