Importing 101 Seminar

Importing 101 is a seminar designed for companies beginning to import goods as well as companies currently importing goods. It is a good introduction training for employees with new international responsibilities that need to understand the details of the importing process. It will be of interest to experienced importers that want to stay current in customs procedures. It will focus on both the establishment of an effective importing program as well as updates of the changes in the U.S. import rules and regulations

Some of the topics that will be covered are:

- How to Get Started
- Proper Classification
- Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS)
- Decrypting the HTS number
- Methods of Appraisalment
- Compliance Assessment/Compliance Measurement
- Country of Origin Marking
- Import Quotas
- Utilizing a Foreign Trade Zone for Imports

Presenters with the expertise in their fields and daily practitioners are:

- Tim Begley, President, Globetech Manufacturing
- Brian Wolfrum, Import Compliance Analyst, Trimble Navigation Ltd.
- Kai Bitter and Neil Smal, Attorneys, Frost Brown Todd LLC
- Marci Wright, Administrator, Greater Dayton FTZ
