Job Description.

Job Description
Tutors assist individual students or small groups of students with the study of course-specific content (up to courses numbered 3000). Assistance may include offering tutorials, modeling problem-solving strategies, clarifying information, and answering questions. Additionally, Tutors help to motivate students and cultivate good study skills. Tutors meet with students weekly, typically providing consistent, weekly service as requested.

Duties
- Facilitate tutoring sessions: support learning in the content area and cultivate effective approaches to learning
- Prepare for each tutoring session by selecting, developing, and organizing appropriate materials
- Plan session activities
- Conduct all record-keeping activities within deadlines
- Attend and participate in required training and staff meetings

Requirements
- A or B in course being considered
- Minimum of 3.0 cumulative GPA
- Minimum sophomore status or completion of at least 15 credit hours at Wright State University
- Ability to communicate effectively
