- Continued designation of the Women’s Center as a “Safe Space” by Rainbow Alliance; all professional staff members trained as Allies.
Student Organizations

- Women’s Center Director served as advisor of Feminist Majority Leadership Alliance (FMLA) and the V-Day Initiative; Women's Center Coordinator served as advisor for Mothers Offering Mothers Support (MOMS); Women’s Center Program Assistant served as co-advisor for Rainbow Alliance.
- FMLA and MOMS used Women’s Center space for their officer and general assembly meetings; and
- Women's Center professional staff served as consultants for several additional student organizations, such as Rainbow Alliance, Way with Words and University Activities Board, among others.

- Donations of over $2000 were earned by the 2009 V-Day event; they were deposited into the fund “Sexual Assault Prevention and Education,” administered by the Women’s Center.
- Increased student use of the Women’s Center as a place to meet and study; this increase is both measured by more individuals choosing to use the Center and also those students utilizing it for more hours each day than previous years.

- Foster connections for women through networking and mentoring (STATUS: INCREASED)
  - The Women Faculty Rendezvous continued to attract faculty members, particularly new hires.
  - FMLA and MOMS continued to meet in the Center and provide opportunities for student involvement in women’s issues.
  - “Women in Art: Unheard Voices” exhibit, in collaboration with the YWCA, continued as a mentoring program for new women artists.
  - Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day 2009 was a successful event in which university employees mentored the children in their lives and introduced them to Wright State University. In addition, Girl Scouts came back to the campus for the second time to participate in the event, as well as ESL students from Dayton Public Schools. A special day was arranged for both groups during which they participated in career exploration activities.
  - Director served as internships coordinator for one undergraduate intern and two graduate interns. Coordinator served as internship coordinator for one undergraduate intern.
  - Women’s Center Staff continued to provide opportunities for student volunteers to become involved in events/programming on various women’s issues. Students volunteered a total of 171 hours.

- Initiate educational efforts for gender and diversity issues, make recommendations to appropriate administrators/campus leaders, and assist other groups and offices with their efforts. (STATUS: INCREASED)
  - The Women’s Center staff planned a reception celebration in honor of the “Women in Art: Unheard Voices” 10 year anniversary. The reception was attended by approximately 100 faculty, staff, students, and community members, as well as many past artists.

- The Women’s Center staff planned Women’s History Month (WHM) events that included a keynote address by Angela Davis and the “Women in Art: Unheard Voices” exhibit. The Women’s Center once again partnered with the Office of the President to make Angela Davis’ visit a Presidential Lecture, which elevated awareness of WHM and the Center. The staff also facilitated the promotion of Women’s History Month events sponsored by other units such as the International Women’s Day Luncheon with Loretta Ross (Women’s Studies Program), Women’s Breakfast and Roundtable, “The Making of an Outdoor Woman” (Five Rivers MetroParks); and Dear Dr. Hip Hop (Bolinga Black Cultural Resources Center).

- Collaboration with the Bolinga and AHNA Centers to provide more coordinated programming for Women’s History Month, as well as continued annual collaborations such as the Multicultural Reception, Multicultural Halloween, and Kwanzaa.

- Collaboration through the Coalition Against Sexual Assault (CASA) to program for Sexual Assault Awareness Week and with the Office of Student Support Services for programs for Romance Responsibility Week.

- The director continues to serve on the Planned Parenthood Sexual Assault Prevention Advisory Council.

- The Director actively served on the following university committees: the University Diversity Advocacy Council, the Women’s Studies Advisory Board, the Core Team of the Wilbur and Orville Wright Leadership Academy (Student Activities), and as a Team Leader for the Take Flight Leadership Weekend & Retreat, all of which had major implications for women/gender issues and helped to open doors to new faculty, staff, and student groups.

- The Director served on the ACE Ohio Women’s Network Executive Board, serving as Communications Chair.

- The Women’s Center, along with Student Activities, Counseling & Wellness, and three GLBT student organizations, began work to revitalize the Safe Space Program.

- Began work on a partnership with Lake Campus to provide gender and diversity-related educational programs and services.

- The Director served on the screening committee for Womanline’s Young Women Leaders Award.

- The Coordinator served on MOSAIC (Ending Sexual Violence in the Miami Valley).

- The Women’s Center had a presence at large campus events such as May Daze, SOAR and Move-In Day.

3. PROGRAM IMPROVEMENTS

List planned or actual changes (if any) to curriculum, teaching methods, facilities, or services that are in response to the assessment findings.
ACTUAL CHANGES

• Methods
  o Increased collaboration and representation across campus.
  o Increased outreach to student organizations.

• Facilities
  o Due to increase in students utilizing the center, a quiet study table/area was added.

• Services
  o Increased ability to work with student parents due to additional resources and collaboration with other units (e.g., Nursing, Student Affairs).

PLANNED CHANGES

• Expanding of Women’s History Month programming by collaborating with the Office of the President.
• Increased collaborations with the Bolinga Black Cultural Resources Center and the Asian/Hispanic/Native American Center through the development of the Multicultural Center model.

4. ASSESSMENT PLAN COMPLIANCE
   Explain deviations from the plan (if any).

   • No deviations.

5. NEW ASSESSMENT DEVELOPMENTS
   Describe developments (if any) regarding assessment measures, communication, faculty or staff involvement, benchmarking, or other assessment variables.

   • No developments.
   • This assessment year was the first of a three-year cycle.
