Frequently Asked Questions

1. Which positions are subject to background checks?

   Background checks are conducted for all prospective employees; full and part time, temporary and/or special contract positions.

2. How are the background checks conducted?

   The university has partnered with a third party, HireRight, to conduct its background checks.

3. How does a hiring department initiate a background check on the selected applicant(s)?

   Once the hiring department initiates the Hiring Proposal in PeopleAdmin and obtains all necessary approval(s) for the top candidates, the Hiring Proposal must be submitted to Human Resources by changing the applicants’ statuses to “Initiate Background Check”.

4. After HR Employment is notified of the background check request, what is the next step?

   Once Talent Team receives the notification, the selected applicant is sent an email from HireRight. The applicant then must follow the instructions in the email to sign the Disclosure and Authorization form electronically and initiate his/her background check.

5. How long does it take to obtain the background check results?

   The average turnaround time for background checks is 5-7 business days.

6. How is the hiring department notified of the results?

   Once Talent Team obtains the results from our third party vendor, the hiring department is notified via email.

7. Do internal transfers and/or promotions require a criminal background check?

   No, unless the essential functions of the position include handling large sums of university funds, working with sensitive data, and/or working with minors.

14. Where can an applicant get their fingerprinting done?

    The Educational Resource Center on campus offers fingerprinting services. ERC is located in 116 Allyn Hall. Their hours of operation for fingerprinting vary each term.

15. Who pays for the background checks, including the fingerprinting?

    Human Resources pays for all background checks, including fingerprinting with the exception of Adjunct positions. See University Policy 8130 for more information.
16. If the selected applicant is international, will he/she have to go through a background check?

For new hires coming directly from a residence outside of the U.S., the university will accept the security check conducted by the Department of Homeland Security prior to the applicant obtaining approval to work in the U.S., which is in the form of their visa. Anyone who has resided in the U.S. for at least twelve consecutive months, the university will conduct its customary criminal background check.

17. Where are the results stored?

Results are stored by the vendor.

18. If a background check indicates that the applicant is not suited for university employment, how does the university handle it?

See University Policy 8130.

19. Does Human Resources also initiate education verifications?

Yes.

20. Which positions are subject to education verifications?

Education verifications are mandatory for all positions that require a degree.

21. When are education verifications initiated?

Education verifications are initiated at the same time background checks are initiated.

22. How are education verifications obtained?

The university utilizes the National Student Clearinghouse and HireRight for its education verifications.
