Search Process and Hiring Proposal

1. Before contacting applicants for an interview, an approval from the Office of Equity and Inclusion must be obtained. The first step is to move all applicants who applied by the first consideration date to an appropriate status. For the list of application statuses, refer to the last page of this guide.

- Click on the applicant’s name.
- Roll over ‘Take Action on Job Application’ button to view the list of applicant statuses.
- Then, change the applicant’s status by selecting the appropriate status.
2. To change multiple applicants’ statuses all at once, select the applicants with the same statuses by clicking the boxes next to the names, then roll over the ‘Actions’ button, and select the appropriate status. Keep in mind that bulk transition takes time to update; therefore, you may not see the update right away.
3. The second step is to submit the applicants to be interviewed to Office of Equity & Inclusion for approval. Once the search committee has identified the applicants to be interviewed, go to each application by clicking on the name of the applicant, then click on ‘History’ tab. Enter strengths and weaknesses in the ‘Note Text’ field. Then, click ‘Create User Note’. Office of Equity and Inclusion will be reviewing the strengths and weaknesses before approving them for interview.
Click on ‘History’ tab.

Enter strengths and weaknesses. Then, click ‘Create User Note’ to attach your comments to the application.
4. Once the strengths and weaknesses are added, click ‘Take Action on Job Application’, and select ‘Recommend for Interview’.

5. Selecting ‘Recommend for Interview’ status will trigger and send an email to the Office of Equity & Inclusion. Once Office of Equity and Inclusion approves applicants for interview, the system will trigger and send you an email notifying you that the applicant(s) have been ‘Approved for Interview’.

Click on ‘Take Action on Job Application’ button, then select ‘Recommend for Interview’ status from the list.
6. Once the interviews have been conducted and a finalist has been selected by the search committee, go back to the individual’s applicant and create another ‘User Note’ by clicking on the History tab. Scroll down and enter your comparison statement in the text field, then click on ‘Create User Note’. This process replaces the paper ‘Pre-Offer Summary’ form. Once comparison statement is entered, you are ready to initiate the ‘Hiring Proposal’.

7. Repeat the above steps for the applicant(s) that were interviewed, but not selected for hire. Then, change their status to ‘Interviewed but Not Hired’ by rolling over the ‘Take Action on Job Applicant’ button.
8. To initiate the ‘Hiring Proposal’, click on the ‘Take Action on Job Applicant’ button, then select ‘Recommend for Hire’. Note: Until the Hiring Proposal is initiated and submitted, Office of Equity & Inclusion will not be notified of your request for approval.

9. Upon changing the status of the application, the ‘Hiring Proposal’ task with a green plus sign will appear on the right hand side of the application. Click on the ‘Start Hiring Proposal’ to begin the Hiring Proposal process.
10. Click ‘Start Unclassified & Faculty Hiring Proposal’ button on the next page.

11. If the posted rate is to be offered to the applicant, roll over ‘Take Action on Job Application’ and submit it to ‘Affirmative Action’.
12. If a higher annual salary or hourly rate is proposed, follow the next steps.

13. Click on ‘Edit’ link to edit the fields. For faculty positions that are posted with multiple ranks, enter the rank to be offered.

14. Then, enter the proposed salary or the hourly rate in the ‘Proposed Annual or Hourly Rate’ field. No compensation should be discussed with the applicant prior to Compensation approval.

15. If a higher annual salary or hourly rate is proposed, a justification MUST be entered in the ‘Justification’ field. Without justification, proposals will be returned back to you. Then, click on ‘Save’ and ‘Next’.
16. Enter additional comments, if any, in the ‘Comments’ field.

17. When complete, click on ‘Save’, then, ‘Next’ to go the next page.
18. Once on the Summary Page, roll over the ‘Take Action on Job Application’ button, and then click ‘Submit to Affirmative Action’. This action will trigger and send an email to Office of Equity and Inclusion.

19. Once Equity and Inclusion approves the application, an email will be triggered and sent back to you with a notification that you may now ‘Make a Verbal Offer’.

20. If your offer is accepted, go to posting and click on the ‘Hiring Proposal’ tab. Then, click on the application.
21. Then, roll over the ‘Take Action on Job Application’ button and click ‘Send to HR Employment for Background Check’ to change the application’s status and to complete the process.
