How to Search for Salary Ranges

How much am I worth in the job market?

What are others being paid in my industry/field?

How do I protect myself from being underpaid?

The best way to find answers to these questions is to do your research! Many graduating students and other job seekers are unaware of their market value.

Using these resources below, you can find different salaries/ranges of what you can expect to be paid for the job you are looking for. It is recommended to use more than one or two resources to find a good salary range. You can then use these salaries to compare those offered on job postings or when negotiating a salary after a job offer.

- Payscale.com: Salary Wizard
- Salary.com: Salary Information
- Indeed.com: Salary Search
- Bureau of Labor Statistics: Earnings Reports
- Glassdoor.com: Salary Comparison
