WHEN TO CALL UNUM

- When your health care provider has determined you are unable to work due to illness, injury or pregnancy.
- When you need to be absent from work to care for a family member who has a serious health condition.
- When you need to care for a child due to birth, adoption or foster care placement.
- When you need to be absent from work for a qualifying exigency leave because your spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty) in the Armed Forces.
- When you need to care for your spouse, child, parent or next of kin undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is in outpatient status, or is on the temporary disability retired list for a serious illness or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (includes the National Guard or Reserves). This includes a veteran who was discharged from the Armed Forces for reasons other than dishonorable within the 5 year period before the employee’s first day of leave.
- When you need any other type of leave that may be covered by applicable state leave laws.
- Thirty days before a planned leave based on prescheduled medical treatment related to a serious health condition for you or your family member, or the expected birth, adoption or foster care placement of a child.
- Thirty days before a disability based on the expected delivery date of a child or prescheduled medical treatment.

WHAT TO DO NEXT

- Notify your manager or supervisor of your absence from work.
- To submit your claim and/or leave request via telephone, call the toll-free number listed to the left. Please be prepared with the information requested on page 2 of this brochure.
- To submit your claim and/or leave request via the Unum website, go to www.unum.com and follow the claim submission instructions.
- If you are eligible for leave, a certification of health care provider form may be required. If so, it will be mailed in your initial leave packet within 2 business days of filing your leave. You will be provided a minimum of 15 days from the date the leave is requested to complete and return this form.

FOR SHORT TERM DISABILITY CLAIMS

- Provide your health care provider with a signed and dated copy of the authorization form (last page of brochure). This form authorizes the release of medical information needed to evaluate your disability claim.
- Once you have filed your Short Term Disability claim, please fax a copy of the signed and dated disability authorization to the Unum Benefits Center at the following toll-free number, 800-447-2498. If you prefer, you may sign and submit your authorization electronically at www.unum.com/claims.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

We understand that a disabling illness or injury creates emotional, physical and financial challenges and we want to do whatever we can to help you. You have our commitment to provide you with responsive service and to be understanding and sensitive to your circumstances during the claim process.
Please be prepared to provide the following information when you call to submit your claim/leave. If someone else makes the call on your behalf, he/she may need to provide this information.

- Name of the company where you work
- Policy number: STD #96095, LTD&FMLA #96094
- Your name and Social Security number or employee ID number
- Complete address and phone number
- Date of birth
- Marital status
- Occupation (or job title)
- Supervisor’s name and telephone number
- Your last day worked and your first day absent from work due to your claim and/or leave request
- The date you expect to return to work (if you know), or the actual date if you have already returned to work at the time you call

Please note: Leave is job protection under federal and state laws whereas a disability is income replacement. In many situations the two coverages overlap when you are missing work due to your own illness or injury.

In addition, the following information will be needed when submitting a disability claim.

- Healthcare provider’s name, address, fax and telephone number
- A brief description of your medical condition including cause of condition (illness or injury), date of injury or beginning of illness, and whether it’s work-related
- The dates of your first visit, your most recent visit, and your next scheduled visit with your healthcare provider for this condition
- Work restrictions or limitations stated by your healthcare provider, if any.

Prompt and complete information from you and your healthcare provider will help assure a timely decision and payment if you are eligible.

Unum may require additional medical information to better understand your disability claim. The timing of the decision depends on how quickly the information is received.

Unum will partner with you to gather all required information for the duration of your disability claim.
