A. Recognition of New Board Member – Dhishant Asarpota

Mr. Gunlock explained that Wright State University has a total of nine trustees appointed by the Governor of Ohio. Voting trustees serve a nine-year term with staggered expirations coinciding with a yearly vacancy. Student trustees alternate two-year terms, also leaving a yearly vacancy.

Mr. Gunlock then acknowledged that Governor DeWine recently named Mr. Dhishant Asarpota, Student Trustee, for a two-year term, to replace Mr. Shaun Wenrick, whose term ended June 30, 2020. Mr. Sean Culley, Deputy General Counsel, administered the oath of office. Mr. Gunlock congratulated Mr. Asarpota on his appointment and welcomed him to the Wright State University Board of Trustees.

Mr. Gunlock also welcomed everyone participating and viewing to the first meeting of the Wright State University Board of Trustees for the Fall 2020 Semester.

Despite the disruption of the ongoing pandemic, Mr. Gunlock, on behalf of the Board, recognized the perseverance of the Wright State team working extra hard to keep things moving in a positive direction as well as recognizing:

The Student Body: Enrollment showed your determination is the foundation of success and demonstrated an attitude of resilience that will underscore future success in life.

The Faculty and Staff: Working remotely for over six months added a complexity to everything that has been done. Communication has proven absolutely essential to maintaining a sense of community during these times. The messages the Board has seen are uplifting and encouraging in spirit and keep us connected as a Raider family.

Mr. Gunlock further recognized President Edwards for her commitment to holding regular Webex sessions with the Wright State family and noted the Board continues to hear very positive feedback from the community, business partners and Wright Patterson Air Force Base on the work of President Edwards and her team.

The Facilities Team: The results of the work these crews have put in is impressive, and the refreshed graphics bring new life to the campus.
Finally, the Academic and Administrative Teams: The development of the campus re-opening plans with the mix of in-person versus remote classes, student housing plan, and departmental remote-work schedules appear to be minimizing the effects of COVID-19 at Wright State. Mr. Gunlock encouraged everyone to keep up the great work and stated it is very much valued and appreciated.

B. Written Reports – WSU Board of Trustees, September 18, 2020

The Advancement, Communications, Foundation and Marketing written reports as presented to this meeting be, and the same hereby are accepted. The reports are contained in the appendix.

VIII. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

A. University Update

President Edwards welcomed everyone to the Public Session as well as new Student Trustee Dhishant Asarpota to the Board of Trustees and stated she looked forward to working with him.

Dr. Edwards commented 2020 has been one of the most challenging years in modern history and that she was incredibly proud how together as a community those challenges were faced. Provost Leaman, Faculty President Luehrmann and several groups were recognized for meeting every week over the summer besides other essential staff doing significant work to deliver a safe return to campus.

A special thank you was given to the facilities and marketing teams for the branding upgrades that transformed campus, and Dr. Edwards expressed she will be excited to see upgrades at Lake Campus in Phase 2.

Dr. Edwards also acknowledged faculty for their work over the summer to convert a face-to-face class into a remote-teaching experience, and the CTL team for all the incredible work with faculty to ensure students have an academically challenging and pedagogically sound classroom experience.

In July, Craig Woolley, Chief Information Officer, moved to Louisiana State University. President Edwards further thanked Michael Stankas and Kenny Coon, Associate Chief Information Officers, and the Computing and Telecommunications Services (CaTS) team for their dedication as they worked through all the challenging technical issues.

Students in the small number of classes, labs, studios and student-athlete training sessions occurring on campus were thanked for stepping up and conforming to the procedural guidelines and wearing face masks.
Dr. Edwards next gave an update on enrollment. Fortunately, Day 14 enrollment numbers showed a 12.9% increase with a headcount of 11,758, excluding medical students, over budget projection of 10,245. This is still a decrease in student numbers from 13,255 in 2019.

Even though high school students taking College Credit Plus (CCP) classes at Lake Campus significantly increased, all students are not funded at the same rate as general tuition. Classes taught at a high school are funded lower than classes taught by university instructors or university online instruction. Freshman students, Cohort 3, with a four-year fixed tuition rate, pay less tuition for a course at Lake Campus than at the Dayton campus.

President Edwards, noting Wright State’s enrollment trends, stated student headcount peaked in 2015 at 18,059 students. Over the last five years, student headcount has declined by 34%; and freshmen have steadily declined by 51%, coinciding with declining high school graduates in the State of Ohio.

Due to Mr. Rob Durkle, Chief Recruitment and Admissions Officer, recovering from surgery, President Edwards highlighted marketing efforts: Wright State continues to be marketed as one of the lowest tuitions for a high-quality education in the State of Ohio. To attract students, a free class, the Jump Start Program, was offered over the summer. Seventy-eight students participated and 98% of those students enrolled this Fall. The Fall Semester application fee was dropped for undergraduate students; admission officers worked with high schools and community colleges partners that had not been visited for quite some time; and face-to-face campus visits began. One television ad highlighted student Dorian Pierce who, following The Wright Path program, transferred successfully, and will be finishing a degree in Exercise Science on a four-year track.

Retention efforts in the last twelve months resulted in the creation of the retention team working to ensure students have the tools they need to succeed; advisors continued to work the phones and handle any issues; and through Raider Strong, faculty and staff came together in the Spring and made over 9,000 phone calls to undergraduate students, and then graduate students, to check in with them. The retention rate has increased from last year.

Dr. Edwards shared good news:

The Bachelor of Science in Computer Science program was named among the best in the nation by U.S. News & World Report’s 2021 ranking.
The same program’s Master's Degree in Cyber Security also was designated by the National Security Agency and Homeland Security as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Education.

Dr. Kunai Swani, Associate Professor of Marketing, was recognized by Dayton Business Journal’s Forty under 40. He is an expert in business to business marketing communications.

Officer Zachary Norman was honored by the Knights of Columbus with the Officer of the Year Blue Coat Award.

Steve Bognar, an alumni of the year recipient, won an Oscar for Best Documentary Feature with Julia Reichert and this week won an Emmy for the same documentary. Wright State’s film school is recognized nationally and internationally.

Wright State was nominated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) field office in Cincinnati and received the 2020 InfraGard Regional Award in the category of Public/Private Partnership, honored for its strong partnership work with the FBI, hosting events that educated the public on antiterrorism efforts, criminal trends and disaster response.

Alumni Joy McKarns, ‘93, Master Degree in Education, is an Ohio Teacher of the Year finalist and currently teaching 8th Language Arts at Northmont Middle School. Joy also received the 2020 Henry Ford Innovative Teacher Grand Prize Award.

Alumni Tom Jenkins, '97, Elementary Education with a science concentration, '99 Master Degree in Science, is an Ohio Teacher of the Year finalist and currently teaching 8th Grade STEM at Greenon Junior/Senior High School. Tom is a first-generation student from Springfield.

President Edwards next spoke about changes to the organizational structure:

The Office of Inclusive Excellence will report to the President and the search process for a leader started this Fall. Previously, an office combined Title IX, Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), Affirmative Action and Diversity and Inclusion.

The creation of a Chief Recruitment and Admissions Officer’s position held by Mr. Rob Durkle temporarily reports to the President while Mr. Durkle is out.
The Office of Disability Services, Director Tom Webb, also now reports to the President. Elevating that direct report shows commitment to the students. Wright State has been notified of being in the top three in the country for students with disabilities, recognizing service to students with unique abilities.

Searches for cultural specialists to lead the following centers will be held: Bolinga Center, Asian and Native American Center, Latinx and Hispanic Culture Center and LGBTQ Affairs. The Women’s Center has a director.

President Edwards then highlighted several initiatives underway to promote campus Inclusive Excellence:

Kelli Tittle, Director of Compliance, will oversee Title IX and investigations; and a search for an investigator is being completed. Human Resources will be responsible for Affirmative Action and EEO reporting and waivers and, working with the new individual for Inclusive Excellence, overseeing and ensuring the diversity of our applicant pools.

President Edwards reiterated a renewed focus on Inclusive Excellence to ensure diversity and inclusion is embedded throughout the University. The strategy seeks to meld inclusive and academic excellence into one concept, shifts responsibility for diversity and inclusion to everyone on campus, and focuses on structural cultural transformation of the University community that instills diversity and inclusion throughout the institution.

The Director of Inclusive Excellence and Intracultural Affairs will be responsible for all inclusive excellence programming for faculty, staff and students. Inclusive Excellence employs a broad definition of diversity that includes disability, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, ethnic orientation, religion, nationality, age, and other important social dimensions to form a university community. Diversity is a benefit to be actively, intentionally, and consistently engaged with, in the pursuit of achieving numerous learning and organizational outcomes. This Inclusive Excellence principle has been adopted as the official diversity and inclusion strategy.

This Fall, the President’s Council on Inclusive Excellence and a Student’s Presidential Advisory group was formed. Several short-term goals include creating a sustained dialogue program that facilitates difficult conversations for the campus community and a bias incident reporting team; unconscious and implicit bias training for administrators, faculty, staff and board members; reconceptualizing the cultural identity centers; and partnering opportunities with the African-American Alumni Society to create mentoring opportunities for African-American students.

Longer-term goals include curriculum audits; cultural competency assessment of the institutional community; faculty and staff recruitment initiatives; and the possibility of faculty exchange programs.
Dr. Edwards ended her remarks stating that higher education is about creating a better future. Wright State is committed to creating a culture that puts students at the center to produce culturally, competent graduates who are critical thinkers and key problem solvers. Education is key; interpreting data is key; and then communicating that interpretation is key. Wright State has a responsibility to be leaders who create the culture of society for the future.

Trustee Fecher congratulated President Edwards on the diversity and inclusion effort and commented that diversity allows the inclusiveness. The inclusion part is the really difficult part and having the different communities represented on campus is a start. This is the right thing in the right direction. Wright State becomes a stronger University when together as a campus everybody is respected equally across all cultural lines.

Report Out of the September 17, 2020 Meeting:

Chair’s Comments

After welcoming everyone to the first committee meeting this year, Mr. Bridges recognized new Student Trustee Dhishant Asarpota.

Athletics Report

Mr. Bob Grant, Director of Athletics, gave a quick update. The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) announced a suggested start date for men’s basketball of November 25th, but there are a lot of unknowns.

Athletics’ PSA cultural model is, “people first.” The biggest challenge during the pandemic, Mr. Grant remarked, has been not being around the student-athletes. The teams are as good as they’ve ever been in Wright State history and they want to play.
Mr. Jason Franklin, Associate Athletics Director for Sports Health, presented an overview of what was done to keep the athletes safe as they returned this summer. Starting with a phased approach, athletes had meetings with team physicians, Dr. Corey Ellis and Dr. Matt Lawless; limited testing; met with counselor, Allison Newlin, for any mental health needs; scheduled training sessions; mask wearing; monitoring and limiting time with coaches; worked in pods; proper conditioning levels; and followed all NCAA and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines. The number of people on road trips will be limited and grouped. Trustee Montgomery asked how many athletes have tested positive, and Mr. Franklin responded that there were six positives. President Edwards commended the students for complying with mask wearing.

Ms. Lainey Stephenson, a junior, from Park Hills, Kentucky, majoring in communications with a minor in deaf studies, indicated most of her classes being online has been a challenge. Lainey is on the Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) and a student-athlete representative for the Horizon League. She has voted on many tough decisions regarding the upcoming sports. The athletic program makes Lainey feel important and supported. The teams are like family and Lainey is excited to play volleyball in the spring. After graduation, Lainey wants to be a graduate assistant and volleyball coach at Wright State and then continue to work up to the Division 1 level.

Mr. Tanner Holden, a sophomore playing men’s basketball, is from Wheelersburg, Ohio, majoring in business. Tanner stated it has been a huge adjustment since last year and appreciates the help from the academic advisors and staff. After graduation, Tanner wants to open a business in his home town and help give kids the same opportunities academically and athletically that he has had. Tanner’s decision to come to Wright State was based on the family feeling. The support from everyone has been a blessing.

Trustee Gunlock asked if there was any talk from the Horizon League of playing fall sports, and Mr. Grant replied fall sports will not be played but, hopefully, the League will play spring sports.

Dean of Students Report

Dr. Chris Taylor, Wright State’s first Dean of Students, introduced himself, noting he served as the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct for the last seven years.

The presentation shared by Dr. Taylor showed how during the pandemic the Division of Student Affairs refocused their efforts and accepted the challenge to engage students in various ways.
Reporting on Housing and Residence Life, Dr. Taylor discussed that Move-In was extended to four days of scheduled appointments, which allowed for distancing, and permitted only two people helping. Even without volunteers and golf carts, the assessments from families and students were overwhelmingly positive; and they were thankful for the safety measures taken. Students received donated safety kits and families received masks.

Dr. Taylor discussed that occupancy was down due to the pandemic, 1150 vs. 1700 last year, but allowed students to have private bedrooms.

With regards to Student Involvement and Recreation, First Weekend provided a hybrid of virtual and in-person events to introduce new students to campus and the tradition of what it is to be a Raider. Student volunteers supported the events, and all in-person activities complied with state protocols.

Student organizations provided required online training for officers of organizations, virtual meetings and events, and on-line office hours for members. Campus Recreation offered many exercise sessions online, virtual programing, and small group, in-person intramural sports and outdoor activities.

In terms of student mental health, Counseling and Wellness Services, quickly transitioned to remote service operations. Counseling and Wellness Services is staffed each weekday to ensure walk-in crisis coverage, and a small number of clients receive in-person services.

Dr. Taylor highlighted the Raider Food Pantry and the gift card program to purchase groceries and donation drives to restock the pantry and purchase emergency totes that include basic items to prepare food.

The Wright Step Program that originated from the Department of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women to provide power-based violence education to every incoming student was described and includes a bystander empowerment program and outreach by a survivor advocate.

Student Conduct violation numbers are low compared to other campuses, due to declining enrollment and the culture of Wright State students.

COVID-19 policies focused on mask wearing, banning guests in student housing and large gatherings were prohibited. Warnings and education were employed as campus reopened to make sure students knew what was expected. Additional restrictions can be imposed if a student continues to be a risk. Reported COVID-19 violations are very low.

Lastly, Student Legal Services are wholly supported by student fees and operated remotely for the most part. There was a slight decline in cases during the spring and summer.
Trustee Montgomery asked about student services offered at the Lake Campus, and President Edwards informed the Board that the same student services are available but in a smaller manner.

Student Government Presentation
Mr. Adrian Williams, Vice President for Student Body Government, informed the BOT that Student Government had been involved in the Racial Equity Task Force. The task force was made up of Wright State University faculty, staff and students. Various working groups were formed to address systemic and institutionalized racism. There was also a very productive Town Hall, with Chief Finnie, and was well attended. Students were able to ask questions about policing, escalation tactics at Wright State University and how students can become more involved. Mr. Williams further informed the board members that the task force also worked to establish the George Floyd Scholarship.

Student Government has also been working with the WSU Foundation to establish an endowed scholarship that will support three students for the duration of their education at Wright State University and will provide mentorship and networking opportunities through various university offices. Student Government has pledged that in the next 18-months they will have raised the $10,000 needed to make the endowment official.

Trustee Bridges praised the work of the Student Government and stated it does a great service and has been built by the efforts of these students donating great time and energy. A great thank you from the Board.

Provost Report
Provost Leaman updated the trustees on the reopening of campus this fall. He shared the WSU COVID-19 webpage and stated that this has been an ongoing easily accessible format to help our students, faculty, staff, and any members of the public that are interested in learning more about the health and safety of our campus community. Provost Leaman praised the work of the Campus Reopen Steering Committee’s immense amount of work that they undertook to facilitate the return to campus. Seven ad hoc committees: Research Working Group, Academics Reopen, Administrative & Operations, Policies and Procedures, Community Wellness and Health, Student Life, and Contact Tracing and Testing made it happen. Dayton and Lake campuses were represented on all ad hoc committees.

Provost Leaman informed the BOT of the many procedural changes that the committee implemented:
- 70% of courses are delivered remotely
- 5% are in-person only (mostly clinal courses)
o 25% are ‘flexible delivery’, where students can participate in person, remotely with live-video conferencing, or via recordings and other remote activities
o COVID-19 Dashboard online to give an overview of active confirmed cases
o Extensive training opportunities offered for faculty, related to remote instruction
o Classrooms were outfitted with sanitation stations to allow cleaning at the end of each session, with daily deeper disinfection
o Classroom technology upgraded for the flexible delivery and clear safety protocols emphasized throughout summer and lead up to fall reopen

Provost Leaman praised the employees in facilities also for all they have done to get campus ready and keeping the campus disinfected/clean for the safety of our students and employees.

Wright State University now has a COVID-19 testing facility located on campus in lot #20. This is targeted surveillance testing only and a doctor’s order from a Wright State Physicians provider is required. Theatre, Dance and Motion Pictures is engaging in community service by a mask-making project that included current and former students across the Miami Valley, making PPE for local front-line workers. CECS and BSOM have partnered with the 711th Human Performance Wing, the NIH, Ginkgo Bioworks and the Air Force LCMC to look at numbers of people with SARS-CoV-2 antibodies and advanced scalable methods to detect the virus. Too numerous to list here.

Provost Leaman also discussed the Center for Teaching and Learning and their role to provide faculty support for instructional design, Pilot, teaching strategies, remote delivery, etc. Holding remote teaching virtual summits with focus on delivering material remotely/online with an emphasis on solid pedagogy, useful technologies, and overall best practices.

Provost Leaman discussed the classroom upgrades that have occurred. He stated that 150 classrooms will be upgraded to be fully digital with digital cameras, ceiling mounted microphones, digital projection systems and Cisco codecs panels. The over two-million investment into these classrooms has positioned us to meet Wright State’s needs, regardless of teaching mode, for years to come. Also, $300,000 was spent to purchase 271 Dell laptops that were available to loan to students. Mobile hotspots are also available to loan; decreasing the barrier to learning.
Provost Leaman also gave a brief update on the New Health College. The budgets of the three colleges have been combined. The three deans met throughout the summer to discuss critical topics for consideration:

- Health college budget and finance structures created and operationalized
- FY 20-21 budget built as a combined health college with emphasis on resource and staff sharing
- Restructured staffing positions have been proposed
- Provisional college structure designed and ready for feedback
- Faculty, staff, stakeholder workgroups refined, charges crafted

Next steps: key university systems will be engaged to plan required infrastructure changes, combined staffing and supervision assignments finalized, search committee selected and charged for new college dean, social work department transition, and external stakeholder groups identified and invited to participate as steering committee.

Emeritus Requests

Trustee Bridges informed the Board of Trustees that there were a considerable number of faculty members that have requested Emeritus status. The motion to grant Emeritus status was unanimously voted by the committee to present to you today.

Trustee Gunlock asked Trustee Bridges to read the resolution:

Chief Recruitment and Admissions Officer Update
Trustee Bridges stated that Ms. Jennifer McCamis, director of admissions, reported that students can now apply to Wright State for free (transfer and undergraduate), test optional admissions policy (for next two years) and re-aligned application deadlines to be more aligned with scholarship deadlines. Also offered a Jump Start Program – allowing high school seniors to take a summer general education course before the fall semester. There is a 97% persistence rate of these students beginning WSU in fall semester. More than 100 families attended collaborative chats that informed them on housing, dining, business services, student success advising, RaiderConnect, etc.

Trustee Bridges informed the Board of Trustees that a review of our international recruiting agents; including new payment tiers and diversification has been conducted – according to Ms. Streeter-Ferrari, Director, University Center for International Education (UCIE). UCIE has also participated in recruitment fairs in Education USA events in several markets (Brazil, Central Asia, China, etc.). UCIE has begun using social media for some marketing efforts—faculty talks, student interviews and through a partnership with the Ohio International Consortium.

Trustee Bridges informed the Board of Trustees that is was reported that the pandemic has allowed WSU to greatly accelerate some marketing efforts that have been discussed before. Mr. Mark Anderson, Director of Marketing, reported to the committee that Facilities and the Sign Shop were instrumental in making these changes happen. The improvements increase the vibrancy of both Dayton and Lake campuses. There is more to for both Dayton and Lake Campuses.

Academic Support, Orientation, and Student Success Report

Trustee Bridges informed the Board of Trustees that throughout the country enrollment is down. However, Wright State University is only down 11% -- not the 40% that had been predicted when the pandemic began its assault. Our orientation program was completely transformed from in-person to online in less than eight weeks reported Mr. Tim Littell, Associate Vice Provost for Student Success. There was a great deal of praise for the new coordinator of orientation, Ms. Joanie Hendricks in designing the program. More than 1,000 students from May to August benefitted from the program. Also done with only 12 orientation peer mentors.

College of Science and Mathematics Presentation
Trustee Bridges informed the Board of Trustees that Dean, Kathy Engisch gave an informative presentation for the College of Science and Mathematics.

The mission of the college is to create passion for science and mathematics through evidence-based discovery, advancing knowledge of the natural world. “We are teaching the students to think like mathematicians and scientists,” stated Dr. Engisch.

Dr. Engisch high-lighted the undergraduate education. College has first and second year seminars, putting majors together early, classes with less than 40, faculty and students get to know each other, focus on freshman/sophomore needs, and focus on major-specific topics. The goal is for every student to have the opportunity to be in an active learning course in their first/second semester.

Dr. Engisch introduced three students and asked them to give a brief description of their experience/s at Wright State University. The students, Kalyani Chattopadhyay (sophomore, neuroscience major); Tara-Yesomi Wenegieme (senior, biological sciences major); and Tina Davis (senior, biochemistry and molecular biology) gave compelling stories. (Summaries are on September 17, 2020-committee minutes)

Trustee Bridges stated that as reported by Dr. Engisch, every student has a work experience—undergraduate research, health-related job and/or an internship. Wright State University is partnered with many local employers-WPAFB, local hospitals/clinics, etc. This experience gives students/graduates marketable skills, solidify what is learned in class and to build problem solving, critical thinking and communication skills. Twelve WSU students per year receive a stipend to perform research from the National Science Foundation.

Dr. Engisch informed the BOT that graduate students are the life-blood of the college’s research and teaching missions. Graduate students design and perform experiments, assist with publications, train undergraduate students and teach undergraduate classes.

Trustee Gunlock stated that internships should be available to all WSU students. Dr. Engisch agreed and asked that all the trustees use their influence and connections to make that happen.

Mr. Langos offered the motion to adopt the resolution. Mr. Gunlock then stated that since the motion came from a Committee, it did not need a second. Ms. Mickey-Boggs called the roll, and the motion was unanimously passed.

6. Cox Resolution

Mr. Langos read the resolution to authorize the sale of property rights and to expend funds for relocation of certain facilities.

RESOLUTION 21-10

Chief Operating Officer’s Comments

Greg Sample, Chief Operating Officer, also welcomed everyone to the combined committee meeting.

Monthly Financial Performance Reports

FY2021 Financial Analysis

Ms. Sommer Todd, Director of University Fiscal Services, provided monthly financial updates. For FY2020, despite tuition and fees being $6M over, revenue was $2.5M lower than budgeted. Expenses were $4.4M lower than budgeted, so the year-end net result was $1.9M operating surplus.

For FY2021, the Board approved an annual budget with a $31M use of reserves. Tuition and fees were budgeted at a 22% decline in headcount enrollment and actually came in at an 11.6% decline, which has amounted to about $6M of revenue over what was budgeted for fall 2020. The Ohio Department of Higher Education projected state appropriations at $82.7M, however, recommended an expected cut of 20% related to the pandemic which equated to a budgeted amount of $66M for FY2021. In July, projected state appropriations were updated to a 4.5% cut or $79M, with a warning that it could be further reduced. With those two changes, the budget transitioned from a $31M use of reserves to a $12M use of reserves.

FY2020 to FY2021 Actual Comparison

Total revenues and expenses are tracking similarly. Sales and Service categories were budgeted down about $6.7M. Work will continue with auxiliaries and other departments to see if it is necessary to further reduce those categories. Some revenue is lagging, related to the pandemic. Interest income is going to fluctuate throughout the year with actual market conditions. Other expenses, which includes insurance, and library periodicals and subscriptions, are down, and related to timing differences.

FY2020 to FY2021 Single Month Comparison

Tuition and fees while $6M over budget for fall, are still down from FY2020. Expenses are down in compensation and will be each month because the compensation budget was reduced. The compensation budget from FY2020 to FY2021 is down a little over $17M, nearly $9M of that being related to reduced benefits rates.

Investment Reports

Monthly Cash Report as of June 30, 2020

Steve Sherbet, University Bursar, reported the actual cash inflows and outflows results for FY2020 were $314.5M in Cash Sources compared to $303.9M in Cash Uses, roughly a $10M favorable variance in the cash balance. A lot of that was contributed to the University community managing expenses to achieve a positive increase in reserves. About $2.6M in Total Investment Income was earned to achieve $1M additional in Investment Income over budgeted. Capital Calls were almost $356,000, but over $2.2M in distributions from the private equity investments was returned back to the University. The Net Transfer from Restricted of $1,865,000 was the difference that was moved back up to the Working Capital.
As of June 30, 2020, total Cash and Investment Balances ended at $84M vs. a balance of $72M in FY2019. FY2019 ended the year with 83 days Cash on Hand vs. 106 days Cash on Hand in FY2020.

Monthly Cash Report as of July 31, 2020

For FY2021, the Cash Forecast, under Cash Sources totaled $284.5M against expected Cash Uses of $297M. The approved budget plan from June indicated reserves were going to decrease in FY2021. Total Working Capital and Illiquid Investments indicated reducing reserves by $13.5M, largely due to less enrollment and less tuition revenue and a decrease in subsidy.

Monthly Cash and Investment Balance at the end of January 2021 is forecasted at $108M vs. in January 2020, cash reserves of $111M. A further decline in the remaining five months is expected; and at the end of June 30, 2021, $71M in Cash and Investment Balance is projected vs. $84M in FY2020, and slightly lower than the $72M in FY2019. In June 2021, forecasted Days Cash on Hand is 91 days vs. FY2020 ending at 106 Days Cash on Hand.

Mr. Sherbet then gave a brief analysis of the executive summary to the Committee on bond refunding, focusing on the 2011 Series A bonds, to lower the debt service cost. A net savings in the amount of $3M plus savings over ten years is a possibility, with costs around $600,000. The risks are possible interest rate increases from the present market condition and possible downgrade in the Moody’s rating and negative publicity. After further discussion with Trustees, Mr. Sherbet will pursue the process of the bond refunding.

Investment Reports

The investment return ending July 31, 2020 is lower due to lower rates. Investment Income of almost $27,000 was earned for July and $78,000 for August, totaling $105,000 in Investment Income for the first two months of this fiscal year, significantly lower than the past years. There is no change in allocation.

Sale of Private Equity Investments Resolution

On the sale of the two private equity investments to the Foundation, Mr. Sherbet gave an update on conversations with the Foundation over the summer. After researching the purchase of the equity investments, the Foundation concluded they would want a 5% discount, which would amount to a loss of $450,000. By taking this action and after investment earnings in the amount of $105,000 in July and August, there would be a net investment loss in the range of $275,000-$300,000 for FY21.

Previously, the sale of the two private equity investments was to reduce risk of the portfolio. Both of these investments are quality investments. There is now a high likelihood that these investments will continue to receive distributions over time and, therefore, may benefit the University to hold onto these two investments rather than sell them and take a 5% loss. After additional discussion and no objections, the resolution for the Sale of Private Equity Investments was tabled.

COVID-19 Expenses Resolution

Mr. Burhan Kawosa, Interim Associate Vice President, Financial Operations, explained that in July, the University received notification from the Ohio Department of Higher Education (ODHE) that as part of the CARES Act, Wright State’s allocation of the relief effort from the higher ed sector was in the amount of $5.43M. Wright State applied for it and received it on August 27, 2020. The resolution is asking the Board to authorize the University to expend these funds to reimburse the University, under the guidance of the U. S. Treasury, ODHE, Ohio Auditor and Wright State’s auditor, for eligible COVID-19 related expenses incurred.

Ms. Shari Mickey-Boggs read the resolution.

RESOLUTION 21-

WHEREAS, in order for the university to conduct business on an ongoing basis, and provide products and services in a timely manner, purchases must be made; and

WHEREAS, these expenditures may exceed $500,000; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that the Wright State University Board of Trustees authorizes the expenditure of up to $5,437,011 in Coronavirus Relief Funds granted to the University by the Ohio Department of Higher Education for use in offsetting university expenses incurred as a result of addressing COVID-19.

X. STUDENT TRUSTEE’S REPORT

Ms. Olivia Sneary, Student Trustee, introduced Mr. Dhishant Asarpota, new Student Trustee, who is a medical student also. College experiences are different with COVID-19, Ms. Sneary stated. Operation Move In was a success with volunteers directing a touchless, drive-through process. Students received safety starter kits and voter registration information. Student life has not stopped for the approximate 1200 new and returning students that moved in.

Mr. Asarpota highlighted some events held on campus such as Greek Life organizations having created virtual recruitment efforts through Zoom, online social events, and social distanced or virtual philanthropy events. Campus Recreation adapted outdoor events with social distancing and limited students in the gym.

Ms. Sneary added that We Serve You held a virtual event to connect volunteers to organizations to get students involved in the community and further reported on intramural opportunities. The University Activities Board (UAB) still plans on Homecoming happening on September 28 with many safe events, games and drive-in movie night. Everyone is invited to attend the Homecoming events.

Trustee Fecher asked Dhishant to tell the Board more about himself, why he chose Wright State, and what he is studying.

Mr. Asarpota stated he is from New Hampshire and graduated from Boston University. He spent a couple of years doing some biomedical research and time in industry and then went to Case Western for his Master’s in Physiology and MBA. Mr. Asarpota consulted with McKenzie in the farm industry and is now a third-year medical student. Mr. Asarpota related that he is at Wright State because of the patient-centered medical approach versus a research focus.

XI. FACULTY SENATE PRESIDENT’S REPORT

Dr. Laura Luehrmann, Faculty Senate President, expressed she continues to hold hope for the University students, faculty, alumni and administration and optimistic after seeing everyone come together over the past few very difficult months.

First, Dr. Luehrmann presented a slide showing each college’s representation on the Faculty Senate. Faculty serve two-year rotating terms, represent all faculty and hold monthly meetings. Another slide listed the various faculty committees, some meeting once a week.

Next, Dr. Luehrmann highlighted major initiatives that happened over the summer including emergency remote teaching and flooding the food pantry with gift cards. Faculty re-opening survey results are posted on the website. During the pandemic, Faculty Senate hosted seven Shelter in Place (SIP) virtual lectures by faculty experts addressing relevant issues. Other highlights were: Racial Equity Task Force, Cisco classrooms; test optional plan with Admissions; new flexible delivery teaching modality; new Curriculog deadlines; and additional special meetings in June and August to hear from President Edwards and Provost Leaman about all the significant changes.

Dr. Luehrmann ended her report by inviting the board members to visit the Faculty Senate website to review the minutes and attachments from the meetings. Recordings of the SIP lectures are also posted. Faculty are dedicated to the success of the Wright State community and focused on their commitment to teaching, research, service and the students’ success.

Trustee Platt thanked Dr. Luehrmann for the relationship created over the last year. He has a better understanding of what faculty do. Dr. Luehrmann appreciated the outreach and efforts of the Board to work more closely with faculty.

Advancement Report Overview
August 2020

Despite the challenges presented by the current pandemic and the remote work environment, the Advancement Division concluded the 2020 Fiscal Year in strong fashion. We had our best fundraising year in terms of gifts and pledges since closing out the Rise.Shine Campaign in 2016.

Even though we continue to work remotely and have had limited face-to-face interaction with donors we have been active in engaging donors and alumni in other fashion. We are encouraged by the gift conversations that we continue to have with individuals and organizations that want to assist our students and partner with Wright State.

As we look to the remainder of this calendar year, our activities and our work have adapted to allow us to work toward the same objectives, but in a different way. For example, we have taken our alumni events to a virtual mode, which has allowed us to continue to engage alumni and opened up our participation to an even broader audience.

We are excited about the year ahead and look forward to overcoming the challenges presented by Covid 19 and impacting current and future students through our work.

Alumni Survey
The Alumni Association completed a full alumni survey in Spring 2020. We are in the process of reviewing the survey data and how that relates to our programming and events. This report includes all pledges and gifts to Wright State University Foundation, not pledge payments.
Public relations, media relations and internal communications play a vital role in university operations and branding. Communications staff view interactions in each of these disciplines as invaluable opportunities to strengthen Wright State University’s brand.

Our strategy is to build our brand largely through aggressive and sustained, brand journalism-driven, digital content creation. This strategy is supported by the voluminous creation of high-quality content that’s used to create repeated positive mentions in the external news (earned media), and increase university-wide awareness and brand advocacy through sharing and posting on internal channels (owned and social media).

Public Relations & Media Relations

Office of Communications staff fulfill this role in large part by highlighting brag points and feel-good stories about Wright State and its people through high-quality articles and videos that are posted to the Wright State Newsroom, distributed across university websites, and on university social media channels. Newsworthy stories are identified by staff and leveraged as pitch tools to external media. Staff also aggressively respond to external media requests for faculty expertise on stories often unrelated to the university but integral to the “news of the day.”

Data:

The June 18 — August 27, 2020 public relations metrics are as follows:

- Total External Media Clips ( + and -): 287
- Positive External Media Clips: 259
  Positive Advertisement Value: over $332,000
  Verbatim clips: During this period, at least 7 times the external media used stories and videos exactly as Communications staff created them.
- Negative External Media Clips: 28
  Negative Advertisement Value: over -$42,900

Media clips: Defined as external news stories about Wright State (most often) or stories that mention Wright State.
Positive Advertisement value: External media coverage that results in positive exposure for Wright State’s brand, the value of which is derived by the amount in dollars that Wright State would have had to pay to advertise in the same space or time that our clips were used in the news. (Provided by contracted vendors Vocus/Cision, TV Eyes.)

Negative Advertisement value: The inverse of Positive Advertisement value. External media coverage that is unquestionably negative for Wright State’s brand, the value of which is derived by the amount in dollars that Wright State would have had to pay to advertise in the same space or time that our clips were used in the news. (Provided by contracted vendors Vocus/Cision, TV Eyes.)

Verbatim clips: Stories or videos written/produced by Communications staff that were printed or broadcast by external news sources exactly as they were created by our staff.

Communications (internal)

Communications staff members write, edit and distribute around 500 Newsroom stories each year that post to websites across campus and are shared via email and social media. Staff also distribute campus-wide email messages from the administration, crime warnings and emergency messages, among many others.

Data:

The Office of Communications made 86 original content story posts to the Wright State Newsroom from June 18 — August 27, 2020 distributing and pitching many as press releases.

Also, during this time, Communications sent 64 campus-wide email communications. 21 of those messages were on behalf of colleges, units and other campus organizations. 25 were sent on behalf of the president, the Board of Trustees, the administration or police. Zero Wright State Alert messages were sent. The rest were morning news roundup emails sent to all employees with links to university news.

University Initiative Participation

The Office of Communications is an active participant in university-wide strategic initiatives, university search committees and state associations including the President’s Council, Campus Reopen Steering Committee and the Administrative and Operations sub-committee, Virtual Commencement Planning committee, Emergency Management Committee, IUC Chief Communicators group, University Bookstore Advisory Committee, Social Media Managers Group and the Homecoming Steering Committee.

• Board met virtually on July 31, 2020. Next meeting will be held virtually in October.
Financial markets, which experienced their greatest losses since the Great Recession of 2008-2009 in the first quarter of 2020, inexplicably roared back during the second quarter of the year. By the end of June, first quarter losses were almost completely erased, a feat subsequently achieved in July and August. Despite this extraordinarily positive performance, market watchers continue to be skeptical that such results are sustainable given the negative impacts suffered by many sectors of the economy. While temporary stimulus programs provided the intended boost in economic activity, it is less clear how long such efforts will be able to continue with the same effect.

The Foundation’s endowment portfolio ended the fiscal year with a market value of $87.7 million, a loss of $1.4 million over the previous year-end value including net capital withdrawals of $1.0 million. That translates into an earnings rate of minus 0.58%. Although a negative return on investments is never desirable, this result seems almost positive given the drastic losses experienced earlier in the year. As mentioned above, positive market performance has continued throughout the summer.

For the fiscal year, equity investments were mostly responsible for the slight loss our endowment portfolio experienced. They lost 0.8% for the year, with domestic securities outperforming international issues. Our global investments lost 12.1%, while international (excluding U.S.), lost 8.5%. Domestic issues did only slightly better losing 6.6% as a class. Domestic small cap was especially hard hit losing 14.4% in FY20. Positive performers for the year included large cap equity (+7.4%), core fixed income (+9.9%) and private equity. One of our alternatives, the Energy Debt fund lost nearly 35% for the year, as this particular industrial segment was decimated by the slowdown brought on by the pandemic.

The Foundation’s current endowment portfolio composition, including target allocations, actual allocations, and market values, as of June 30, 2020, is presented below:

Emergence Center

Located in the heart of the Vishal Soin Innovation Park just south of Wright State University’s main entrance, the Emergence Center will be a place for the greater Dayton region to collaborate with Wright State faculty, students, and one another — where ideas can be unleashed, free from typical institutional and bureaucratic barriers that hinder innovation.

In addition to Wright State University resources, the Emergence Center will offer on-site access to The Entrepreneurs Center and the Small Business Development Center to support business planning, development, and advancement in support of commercializing ideas or products for the university and greater Dayton community.

This will be a one-stop destination where corporate and community partners who join the Emergence Center as tenants or members can access shared facilities and front-door service to the university’s resources, including students, faculty, research, continuing education, and more.

- WSU’s Entrepreneurship Club will provide concierge and business services to the Emergence Center’s clients
- New Media Incubator, The ONEIL Center, and other campus-based, experiential-learning centers will benefit from a pipeline of new clients from the Emergence Center
- Career Services will match students to Emergence Center’s clients for internships and co-ops

Configured to include event spaces, conference rooms, drop-in workspaces, co-working, private offices, and leasable floorplates up to 10,000 square feet, the Emergence Center will offer a variety of space and place-making options and amenities for a vibrant mix of companies and start-ups to work alongside individual entrepreneurs and innovators.

The Emergence Center will have the latest technology infrastructure and next-generation wireless capabilities throughout the building, providing tenants with secure, seamless, turn-key solutions to meet their needs.

The Business Model

Brokerage

The Emergence Center will act as a broker for Wright State University resources that voluntarily opt in to being represented by the Center. Hours of accessibility, pricing, etc. will be determined by the Wright State entities and included in an asset map that will be put together in a menu-like offering for potential clients to consider.

As with any brokerage firm, the Emergence Center will keep a small portion of any fees collected to offset costs incurred.

Offerings, prices, and associated fees will all be spelled out in a memorandum of agreement and kept on file for the duration of the relationship. The Emergence Center will only accept MOUs ultimately signed by persons/positions designated by the provost or president to ensure continuity in the offerings/pricings in their areas.

Host Site

Currently, the Emergence Center consists of 30,000 square feet located at 3070 Presidential Drive. The building will have incubator/start-up space, co-working space, and configurable space for existing companies that would like to be in close proximity to the resources available at Wright State University.

Much like the mission of the Wright State University Foundation, the Emergence Center exists to support the educational mission of the university. In keeping with this mission, the Emergence Center will only accept tenants that demonstrate a commitment to utilizing university resources and can do so at what would be considered “below market” rates because of this commitment.

Grants

The Emergence Center will pursue funding through grants related to economic development and other focus areas specific to its mission with a goal of complementing, not competing with, the university’s external funding opportunities.

Ancillary Services

Other revenue-generating opportunities include centralized printing opportunities for tenants who would pay a per copy/print fee, vending machines, coffee shop, etc.

Workshops & Certifications

The Emergence Center will partner with community and campus-based experts to offer workshops and certification programs covering entrepreneurial, technical, and special-interest topics within a revenue-sharing model.

Membership Model

With only 30,000 square feet available, the Emergence Center is limited in how it can reconfigure its space and the number/type of businesses it can serve. Because of this, there is a need to establish a model in which non-tenants can access the same Wright State resources as tenants. A membership model that is based on the size of a company and/or other criteria will be implemented so they, too, can be considered a “Wright State company.”

Expense Side

Because the Emergence Center will be located in an existing Wright State University Foundation asset that is not currently generating any revenue from its available space, there are no new expenses expected from this endeavor. Any physical improvements made for tenants will be recouped through increased lease rates for those tenants.
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

MEMORANDUM

July 16, 2020

TO: Scott Rash

FROM: Nathan Holmes
       Arik Sherk

RE: WSU Foundation -- Emergent Center

This memorandum briefly describes legal considerations for Wright State University Foundation, Inc. (the “Foundation”) in connection with its planned creation of the “Emergent Center.”

I. Background

The Foundation is an Ohio nonprofit corporation that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) and is classified as a public charity under Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) of the Code. The Foundation’s Articles of Incorporation provide that it is to be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including (but not limited to): (i) receiving and holding gifts and grants of money and other property for the benefit of Wright State University (“WSU”); (ii) making gifts and grants to WSU, its faculty and students for educational and research purposes; (iii) otherwise assisting WSU, its faculty and students, and (iv) establishing, undertaking or participating in all manner of programs which accomplish any of the foregoing purposes, which may include the purchase, sale, transfer, exchange and holding of real and personal property.

In furtherance of its tax-exempt purposes as described above, the Foundation intends to create the “Emergent Center” as an innovation district at the “front door” of WSU that will provide educational and employment opportunities to WSU students through a business incubator program. It is expected that space in the buildings operated as part of the Emergent Center will be licensed, on a short-term basis and for favorable rental terms, to start-up companies and other businesses that might not otherwise locate in the area and that will provide educational and work opportunities to WSU students and promote collaboration between those businesses and WSU faculty and students. The Emergent Center is expected to be established and operated in a manner similar to innovation/business incubation facilities established by other colleges and universities (such as, for example, Purdue University’s Convergence Center for Innovation and Collaboration).

II. Legal Considerations
A. The Foundation currently holds its existing office building in a limited liability company of which it is the sole member. As part of the Emergent Center, the Foundation will license unused space in its existing office building to start-up companies. For that reason, that limited liability company, Fairborn Office Property LLC, may be re-named WSUF Emergent Center No. 1, LLC.

The Foundation may acquire additional office buildings to license space to start-up companies as part of the Emergent Center. These buildings may include two buildings presently owned by Double Bowler Properties Corp., an affiliate of WSU. If it acquires these buildings, each of them will also be owned in separate limited liability companies, to be named WSUF Emergent Center No. 2, LLC and so on.

Holding the real estate to be utilized for the Emergent Center in separate “single member” limited liability companies makes sense as they are inexpensive to form, simple to operate and will protect the Foundation against lawsuits and claims that may relate to the real estate owned inside the limited liability company.

B. Minimizing Risks of UBTI & Protecting the Foundation’s Tax-Exempt Status.

1. Unrelated Business Taxable Income.

While Section 501(c)(3) organizations such as the Foundation generally are exempt from federal income tax, they may still be subject to taxes on any unrelated business taxable income (or “UBTI”). Further, an organization’s tax-exempt status can be threatened if it receives a significant portion of its income or revenue from unrelated business activities or if a significant portion of its activities are unrelated business activities. Generally, UBTI is a tax-exempt organization’s net income from business activities that are regularly carried on that are not substantially related to the organization’s exempt purposes. Certain rents and other passive income may be excluded from UBTI, although that same passive income can also be included as UBTI if received from certain related parties or if it is derived from property acquired through debt financing. As such, the best way to minimize the risk of UBTI and to protect the Foundation’s tax exemption in connection with the proposed Emergent Center is to ensure that the activities of the Emergent Center are “substantially related” to the Foundation’s tax-exempt purposes. In this regard, it should be noted that while the single-member limited liability companies that will hold the real estate used in the Emergent Center will be treated as separate entities from the Foundation for state law purposes, those single-member liability companies will be disregarded for purposes of UBTI and the Foundation’s federal income tax exemption.

Based on our review of the published guidance and private letter rulings issued by the IRS in related situations, the most important factors in demonstrating that the activities of the Emergent Center are substantially related to the tax-exempt purposes of the Foundation are likely to be the following:

- Limiting the Emergent Center’s tenants/participating companies to businesses that will provide educational and work opportunities for WSU students and opportunities for collaboration with WSU faculty, and ensuring that those opportunities are actually used by WSU students and faculty;
Demonstrating that the Emergent Center’s tenants/participating companies provide a high educational value to WSU students; for example, because they are start-up companies that provide opportunities to learn entrepreneurial skills, because they will provide opportunities for scientific research by WSU students, because comparable opportunities are otherwise not readily available in the local area, because their businesses are a particularly good fit with WSU degree programs, etc.

To the extent that rental terms at the Emergent Center are below market rates, demonstrating that the benefit to participating companies is important to serving educational and charitable purposes; for example, by providing educational opportunities for WSU students with start-up companies or other businesses that may have difficulty attracting capital, and by using short-term licenses, rather than longer-term commitments.

2. Transactions with Insiders.

To further protect its federal income tax exemption, the Foundation must take care in any transactions involving “insiders” to the Foundation, such as Foundation directors or officers and related persons. So, for example, any license of Emergent Center property to a business that is related to a Foundation insider should not be undertaken except in compliance with applicable Foundation conflict of interest policies, and the financial terms of any such license or other arrangement with an insider to the Foundation should be structured to ensure that the Foundation receives a fair market value rate for the services/goods provided under the arrangement.

C. IRS Form 990 Reporting.

In connection with its annual Form 990 information return filings, the Foundation and its tax return preparers will need to give attention to the disclosure of the activities of Emergent Center. Form 990 requires, among other things, that tax-exempt organizations disclose information regarding related parties (such as the single-member limited liability companies) and new activities of the organization. As such, the Form 990 filing process provides an opportunity for the Foundation disclose those activities to the IRS in a manner that highlights the importance of the Emergent Center to the achievement of the Foundation’s tax-exempt purposes.

D. Ohio Commercial Activity Tax.

The State of Ohio imposes a “commercial activity tax” on the gross receipts of most businesses. Gross receipts received directly by the Foundation generally are not subject to the Ohio commercial activity tax. However, for purposes of the commercial activity tax, single-member LLCs owned by the Foundation are treated as separate business entities that may need to register with the Ohio department of taxation and pay commercial activity on rents and other gross receipts. The Foundation’s tax return preparers may be best positioned to assist the Foundation with respect to Ohio commercial activity tax matters.

E. Real Property Tax Treatment.
Ohio Revised Code Section 5709.12 provides for real estate owned by a by 501(C)(3) tax exempt charitable institution and used for its core activity to be exempt from real estate taxation.

On this basis, the Foundation applied for, and received, a real estate tax exemption for its existing office building, except for that portion of the building that it leases to a non-profit tenant that is not using its space in a manner that furthers the tax-exempt purposes of the Foundation.

With respect to space that is licensed to start-up companies as part of the Emergent Center, for that portion of any building owned by the Foundation to be exempt from real estate taxation, the Foundation will need to convince the Ohio Tax Commissioner, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 5709.121(A)(2), that the space is made available by the Foundation to start-up companies under the direction or control of the Foundation for use in furtherance of or incidental to its tax-exempt purposes and not with the view to profit.

Within the confines of our discussion earlier, it appears that the Ohio Tax Commissioner could determine that the licensing by the Foundation of space to start-up companies is in furtherance of its tax-exempt purposes and, because the rents payable under the licenses will be below market rates, that the licensing of space is not with a view to profit. On the other hand, it is unclear that the use of the space by the start-up companies will, for purposes of the statute, be under the “direction or control” of the Foundation.

Note that the determination by the Ohio Tax Commissioner is primarily an issue of fact to which the Ohio courts will defer to the Ohio Tax Commissioner absent an abuse-of-discretion.

F. General Implications for WSU.

The Foundation is nonprofit corporation that operates independently from, and is not under the control of, WSU. However, under the current Code of Regulations of the Foundation, two representatives designated by the Chair of the WSU Board of Trustees from among the then current trustees of WSU are to serve as Trustees of the Foundation with voting rights and the President of WSU is designated as a nonvoting Trustees of the Foundation. In addition, it has been proposed that the WSU Vice President of University Advancement will serve as an ex-officio (voting) member of the Foundation’s Board of Trustees and will also serve as a voting member of the Foundation’s Executive Committee. While these arrangements give WSU some influence on the governance of the Foundation, WSU will not have the ability to control decisions made by the Board or Executive Committee, as the WSU Trustees will not have a majority of the votes in either case.

In addition, the employees of the Foundation are no longer paid or employed by the University, which serves to establish a greater deal of autonomy by the Foundation.

While the Foundation is an independent entity, the WSU leadership is concerned with the operations of the Foundation and the how the operations of the Foundation my impact WSU, as expressed in the lengthy negotiations between WSU and the Foundation over the Memorandum of Agreement governing the relationship between WSU and the Foundation.
From a strictly legal perspective, the operation of the Emergent Center by the Foundation (including the licensing of space in various Foundation buildings through separate limited liability companies), as a separate legal entity, should shield WSU from direct legal responsibility for legal problems arising from the operation of the Emergent Center.

However, given that the Emergent Center will be operated by the Foundation for the benefit of WSU students and faculty, and that WSU will have Board and, perhaps, Executive Committee representation, it is not unfathomable that a creative lawyer might seek to bring the WSU into a lawsuit as a defendant in any action against the Foundation arising from the operation of the Emergent Center. On the other hand, this can be said about any operations of the Foundation.

The more likely concern that WSU may have is that the operation of the Emergent Center might, in some way, results in public embarrassment to WSU. It is hard to see that occurring if the Emergent Center is operated in a manner that protects the Foundation’s tax-exempt status, as previously discussed, but WSU should be properly briefed as to the plans for the operation of the Emergent Center.

Subject: RE: Wright State University Foundation Employee Handbook

As a follow-up to Arik’s note--

We reviewed the handful of private letter rulings issued by the IRS in connection with university-related business incubator programs, and few key considerations emerge from those rules. At a high level, those considerations include:

- Ensuring that the program is operated in a way that furthers the university’s educational mission. Typically, this involves limiting the tenants/participating companies to businesses that will provide educational opportunities for the university’s students (and in some cases, also opportunities for collaboration with university faculty), particularly where those opportunities would be difficult to find in the area, in the absence of the program.
- To the extent that lease terms will be below fair market value, it is important that the tenants not be “insiders” with respect to the foundation (e.g., companies related to foundation leadership), and it can also be helpful if any below-fair market terms are limited to start-up ventures or businesses that otherwise may face challenges in attracting capital.

I look forward to discussing in more detail when convenient.

TO: Scott Rash

FROM: Nathan Holmes
Arik Sherk

RE: WSU Foundation – Raider Food Pantry, Inc.

This memorandum briefly describes legal considerations for Wright State University Foundation, Inc. (the “Foundation”) in connection with the planned formation of Raider Food Pantry, Inc.

I. Background

The Foundation is an Ohio nonprofit corporation that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) and is classified as a public charity under Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) of the Code. The Foundation’s Articles of Incorporation provide that it is to be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including (but not limited to): (i) receiving and holding gifts and grants of money and other property for the benefit of Wright State University (“WSU”); (ii) making gifts and grants to WSU, its faculty and students for educational and research purposes; (iii) otherwise assisting WSU, its faculty and students, and (iv) establishing, undertaking or participating in all manner of programs which accomplish any of the foregoing purposes, which may include the purchase, sale, transfer, exchange and holding of real and personal property.

For a number of years, a food pantry has been operated for the benefit of WSU students who are experiencing hunger or food scarcity. It has been proposed that, going forward, this food pantry activity will be operated by a new Ohio nonprofit corporation to be formed, which will be named Raider Food Pantry, Inc. (“RFP”). RFP will seek tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and public charity status under Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) as an organization that derives a substantial portion of its support from gifts, grants and contributions from the general public, other publicly supported organizations and governmental sources. This approach has been approved by the Foodbank, a Section 501(c)(3) public charity that will provide vital support to RFP.

The Foundation will be the sole member of RFP and as such, the Foundation will elect all of the members of the Board of Directors of RFP, with the Board of Directors of RFP, in turn, electing RFP’s officers (President, Treasurer, Secretary). While some or all of the directors and officers of RFP may consist of individuals who are employees of the Foundation or of WSU, neither RFP’s organizational documents nor any other binding arrangements will require any RFP directors or officers to have any relationship whatsoever with the Foundation or WSU. RFP will be operated as a separate nonprofit corporation and a separate charity from the Foundation, but at all times, the Foundation will maintain the authority to control the direction of RFP through the Foundation’s power to elect RFP’s Board of Directors.

II. Legal Considerations

A. RFP Corporate Governance. RFP will be established as an Ohio nonprofit corporation and will exist as an entity separate from both the Foundation and WSU. The Foundation, however, will maintain indirect control over RFP by electing RFP’s Board of Directors. To maintain appropriate separation of legal entities it will be important for RFP to observe normal corporate formalities, such as holding regular meetings of RFP’s Board of Directors and ensuring proper documentation of corporate actions. In their roles and directors and officers of RFP, the individuals occupying such positions will be subject to fiduciary duties of loyalty and care.

B. Steps for RFP Formation and Tax Exemption. The following briefly describes the basic steps necessary to form RFP as an Ohio nonprofit corporation and for RFP to apply for tax-exempt status:

1. File articles of incorporation with the Ohio Secretary of State to create RFP as an Ohio nonprofit corporation.

2. The Foundation elects the initial Board of Directors of RFP, and the duly elected Board of Directors appoints the following officers of RFP: president, treasurer and secretary.

3. Submit Form SS-4 to the IRS to get a tax ID number (EIN) for RFP.

4. Other basic organizational documents of RFP to be adopted, including RFP’s Code of Regulations (bylaws) and conflict of interest policy.

5. Tax exemption application (Form 1023) to be filed electronically with the IRS to request tax-exempt status for RFP under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and public charity status under Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) of the Code. Assuming that the IRS makes a favorable determination, RFP’s tax-exempt status will relate back to the date it was incorporated (i.e., the date the articles of incorporation were filed with the Ohio Secretary of State).

6. Once a favorable determination letter has been received from the IRS, register RFP as a charity with the Ohio Attorney General (by an online filing through the OAG’s website).

C. IRS Form 990 Reporting and Annual Charitable Reporting.

As a separate nonprofit corporation and tax-exempt charity, RFP will need to file its own annual Form 990 information returns with the IRS. The Ohio Attorney General will also require ongoing annual reporting, which is done online through the OAG’s website).
D. General Implications for Liability of the Foundation and WSU.

RFP will be a nonprofit corporation separate from both the Foundation and WSU, but the Foundation will have indirect control over RFP through the Foundation’s ability to elect the Board of Directors of RFP.

From a strictly legal perspective, the operation of the food pantry by RFP, a separate legal entity that is controlled by the Foundation, but not by WSU, should shield WSU from direct legal responsibility for legal problems that may arising from RFP’s activities. RFP’s status as a separate legal entity should also shield the Foundation from direct legal liabilities arising from the operation of the food pantry by RFP, but to a lesser extent due to the control the Foundation will have over RFP and the possibility of veil piercing claims.

However, as to WSU, given that RFP will be operated as a charity for the benefit of WSU students who are experiencing hunger or food scarcity, it is not unfathomable that a creative lawyer might seek to bring the WSU into a lawsuit as a defendant in any action against the Foundation arising from RFP’s operations. It is hard to see that occurring if RFP is operated in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status, as previously discussed, but WSU should be properly briefed as to the plans for the operation of the food pantry by RFP. Of course, if the Foundation cedes any control rights to WSU over RFP, WSU could become more susceptible to claims for liability.
News for Our Donors

July 29, 2020—Wright State University Foundation helps university during challenging times

The foundation takes an important step in reducing its reliance on Wright State for operating support

During the COVID-19 pandemic, higher education is facing unprecedented challenges and Wright State University is no exception. To help the university focus more of its resources on its core academic mission, the Wright State University Foundation Board of Trustees recently approved a five percent Gift Administration Fee on all non-endowed gifts.

The fee will allow the Wright State University Foundation, which is a separate 501(c)3, to begin reducing its reliance on university funding for its operations. Revenue from the fee will help offset the foundation’s cost of doing business, which includes fundraising, donor stewardship, and gift management.

“Discussions about implementing a gift administration fee have been underway for several years now,” said Scott Rash, president and CEO of the Wright State University Foundation. “With the university’s desire to focus more of its resources on its core academic mission, which is being challenged by the COVID-19 pandemic, this is the right time to move forward. By providing less funding to the foundation for fundraising operations, the university can now shift these much-needed dollars into supporting and educating Wright State students.”

According to Bill Bigham, interim vice president for advancement, implementing an administration fee on gifts is a common practice by various foundations for institutions of higher education, both nationally and in Ohio.

“The fee will help us to continue to provide a high-quality experience for all of our donors,” said Bigham. “Our donors have been incredibly generous in supporting our students, and we want to ensure that they receive the very best in both service and accountability.”

- Gift Administration Fee Policy (PDF)
- Wright State University Foundation Gift Management and Fees (PDF)
Gift Administration Fee – Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What is the Wright State University Foundation’s gift administration fee?
A. The assessment on non-endowment gifts is our cost of being accountable to you and our other donors. This accountability includes our commitment to provide timely gift receipts, accurate records, expert management of gift funds, and efficient disbursement of gift funds to programs at Wright State University.

Q. How much is the administration fee?
A. Each donation to the Wright State University Foundation is assessed a one-time administrative fee equal to 5% of donations to non-endowed funds.

Q. Why does the foundation have a gift administration fee?
A. The assessment allows the Wright State University Foundation to reduce its reliance on direct funding for its operations from Wright State University, thus freeing university funds for education. Revenue from the assessment is directly related to the foundation’s cost of doing business. Effective fundraising, donor stewardship, and gift management requires deployment of financial resources to cover direct costs for the processing, accounting, and disbursement of donated funds.

Q. How are operations of the foundation funded?
A. Foundation operations are funded through a combination of revenue from earnings on short-term funds, endowment management fees, real estate/property management income, and gift assessments.

Q. Do other colleges and universities charge similar assessments? Nationally? In Ohio?
A. A gift assessment of 5% is not uncommon at university foundations throughout the country. While this is new for the Wright State University Foundation, many other institutions and their associated foundations have had a similar fee for some time. There are other foundations associated with public universities in Ohio that have similar assessments as well.

Q. The local non-profit organizations I support don't charge gift fees. What's the difference?
A. The difference is primarily one of terminology. All community organizations have operating costs. In general, revenue from contributions helps in part to support them—whether or not a formal gift "fee" is identified. There are a number of human service organizations, for example, which can charge fees of 15% or more.

In the non-profit sector, best practice standards hold that operating costs in the range of 15-20% are considered to be excellent, assuring that approximately $.80 of every dollar contributed goes to providing direct services. By comparison, $.95 (as of 7/1/2020) of each dollar you give to the Wright State University Foundation gets put to work by the university for the specific purpose you choose to support.

Q. How often does the gift assessment change?
A. The foundation's funding sources are recommended by our finance and investment committee.
and approved by the Wright State University Foundation Board of Trustees. The finance and investment committee reviews the gift assessment on an annual basis. In order to assure budgetary and financial stability, it is changed only rarely.

Q. Can the gift assessment be waived?
A. If a gift is made by a private foundation that has a written policy stating it will not pay gift fees, the Wright State University Foundation will waive the fee.

Q. Does the Wright State University Foundation charge other fees?
A. Like the vast majority of other foundations, we charge an annual fee to manage endowed funds that are invested in perpetuity. Because we want to maximize our endowment's growth over time, we keep this annual management fee to a minimum, currently 1.5% of the market value of the endowment.
