

THE CROW SONG

Words: Ralph P. Smith, Denison 1888

Music: Louis Lambert

♩=120 Arr: Stephen B. Becker, Florida '69

1 2 (third verse ret.) 3 f 4 5

Three Said Then hung-one here's gry Greeks to Be- ry Greek un- ta went forth to The- one day, his mates: ta Pi Oh Vi-ve la The- ta Pi! Three Said Then

6 7 (tenor lead crossover) f 8 x x 3 x x x 9 x x hun-one here's gry Greeks to Be- ry Greek un- ta went forth to The- one day, his mates: ta Pi, Oh Vi-ve la The- ta Pi! Three Said Then hun-one here's gry Greeks to Be- ry Greek un- ta went forth to The- one day his mates: ta Pi, To 'Tis where old Woog- lin holds his sway, here up there live two po- ten- tates; Fill your lungs and give the cry!

10 11 12 13

CHORUS 14 ff 15 16 17 (omit in repeat)

And they all filled their lungs and cried: Phi (Shout Kai shout Phi! shout)

18 19 (repeat chorus)

Vi-ve la The- ta Pi!

Melody: When Johnny Comes Marching Home