

TO THE PLEDGE

Arr: Earl E. Hayes, Idaho '48

Author: Kenneth W. Rogers, Syracuse '17

♩=110

The And three when bright our stars cir- are cle yours, folds my boy, You're Our pledged Mys- ter- ies you'll band; know: "Guard You'll well feel your shield from that life's makes al-loy! " 'Tis That Woog-sets lin's stern hearts com- a- mand: glow: And So if steer old Woog- lin your path tow'rds sees Woog- lin's live den, A And life with his praise sing can his win, praise, You'll Un-have til the best that you life blest can give, You'll wear the Be- span ta of pin. days.