

WE GATHER AGAIN

Melody: R. Z. Thomas

Words: John H. Lozier, De Pauw 1857

♩=120 Arr: Shelby L. Molter, Miami '54 Herbert L. Blair, MTSU '87

1 There's a leg- end by a- mong us you of know, fate, broth- er, That Woog- last- ing on- fame ly is

2 'Tis not by the cr- tunes of

3

4

5 reigns won; With They those in these re- gions be low, great, broth- er, Who val- ue the force of they

6 on- ly are vic- tors

7

8

9 brains run. And Then he will not crown your brow, view, bro- ther, Un- less in the bat- tle's

10 Keep our mot- to in

11

12 ev- er with lof- ty

13 strife aim By Be win- ning each vic- to- ry now, true, bro- ther, You win a bright way thro'

14 fear- less and pure, and

15

16 bro- ther, And Woo- glin will guard your

17 life. fame.

18

19 CHORUS So linked in our mys- ti- cal chains, broth- er, We'll raise our fair ban- ner on

20

21

22 high, And be true to old Woog- lin, who reigns, broth- er, In Be- ta The- ta Pi.

23

24

25

26

Melody: When You and I Were Young Maggie