

Miami Valley Archives Roundtable

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

Wright State University Special Collections and Archives

Thursday, August 16, 2007

10:00 am – Noon

Please join the Miami Valley Archives Roundtable at the Wright State University Special Collections and Archives. Three area archivists, Gwen Haney (Dayton History), Jan Livingston Brady (Preble County Historical Society), and Tim Binkley (United Theological Seminary) recently created a questionnaire regarding reproduction policy and practice. They sent the survey to MVAR members, museums and other interested institutions in the 6 county area bordering Dayton. They plan to use this information to facilitate a discussion among Roundtable members regarding our various reproduction policies. Dawne Dewey, Head of Special Collections and Archives at WSU, will also speak on the topic of reproduction issues in general and as well as policies specific to Wright State University.
