Dear Dance Director and Students,

Wright State University will conduct an intensive dance workshop on Saturday, March 10, 2012. Last year's workshop was a great success thanks to all of you who participated and we hope you will be able to take part in this fantastic event again or join us for the first time! The faculty and students of Wright State University's dance program are excited to share a sampling of dance styles with you and your students. Faculty members Teressa Wylie McWilliams, Gina Walther, Justin Gibbs, Joe Deer and Greg Hellems along with various guest instructors will be teaching technique classes in jazz, tap, modern, ballet, Rockette Precision Dance, hip-hop and lyrical. To get a visual taste of the choreography WSU creates, each registered student will receive one complimentary ticket* to the faculty Winter Dance Concert that weekend! Free breakfast snacks are offered beginning at 8:30 a.m. followed by master classes starting at 10:00 a.m. Bring your brown bag for a lunch break and more classes will follow in the afternoon. For all interested seniors, there is an audition for acceptance into the dance program from 3-4 p.m.* The cost for the entire day is only $35.

The enclosed registration forms and schedule details the dance intensive which is geared toward high school age dancers. Please complete and return as soon as possible since classes fill up fast! We want everyone to be able to participate, but there is limited space. Therefore, please get your registration and payment in as soon as possible!

Wright State's Dance Program is unique in design - we teach highly disciplined classes in a variety of styles that embrace individual needs, backgrounds and aspirations.
