

Math and Statistics Sequences

This chart displays the prerequisites and sequences for commonly required math and statistics courses. Prerequisites for a particular course are shown above that course. Students' first math courses depend on their math placement levels and majors. Students should consult with their advisor or catalog/program checklist for more detailed information.

