

UVC 101: First Year Seminar I: Interactive presentation and discussion of college student life and adjustment issues, academic strategies, academic requirements and information, organization of the university, and career development.

Special topic sections typically taught by Peer Instructors include UVC 101 sections for:

- Residential Life Learning Communities for any major
- Business Majors
- Education Majors
- Engineering Majors
- Nursing Majors
- Pre-Law (any major)
- Undecided students focusing on exploring majors
- College Success Learning Communities for students with any major
- Campus Recreation
- College Success for Commuters
- Concert Band – for non-music majors
- Digital University
- Human Behavior: Self & Society
- Leadership & Service Learning
- Outdoor Adventures
- Student Clubs & Campus Involvement
- Study Abroad: Getting to Know Other Cultures
- Understanding Personality

UVC 102 First Year Seminar II: Extends learning community participation, uses students' first quarter experience to further facilitate adjustments to college.
Prerequisite: UVC 101

Special topic sections typically taught by Peer Instructors include UVC 102 sections for:

- Business Majors
- Dating & Relationships
- Human Sexuality

UVC 103 Campus-Community Connections in the First Year: Connects students with the community through service learning to further facilitate college adjustment and develop foundations for lifelong service. Introduces concepts of community, citizenship, service and social issues being addressed by partnering community organizations.

Special topic sections typically taught by Peer Instructors include UVC 103 sections for:

- Sustainability & Recycling
- Service Learning & Health Care