

STEPS TO STUDY ABROAD THROUGH AMBASSADOR PROGRAMS

1. Consider the different program options available.
 - Brochures in the University Center for International Education (UCIE)
 - <http://www.wright.edu/ucie/>
2. Narrow down or determine the program(s) that you would like to do.
 - Consider the financial costs involved
 - Talk with your family and friends to get their input as well
 - Consider applying for a passport if you do not already have one
3. Set up an appointment with Tracy Kingsley or Vanessa Walton in the UCIE to discuss your study abroad options and begin the process for studying abroad.
4. After deciding which program you want to apply for, come to the UCIE to obtain an application and any other necessary paperwork.
5. After meeting with your academic advisor and receiving approval of your classes, return the following to the UCIE, your application is NOT complete until all items are turned in:
 - Application
 - Application processing form
 - $250 deposit
 - $50 non-refundable application fee
 - A passport size photo of yourself
 - WSU Student Agreement for Participation in Ambassador Programs (can be found online)
 - WSU Study Abroad Student Information Form (can be found online)
6. An interview may be required.
7. Students will find out more information directly from the professor leading the program as the program date approaches.
8. Before leaving for your trip, you MUST bring or send to the UCIE a copy of your passport
9. The University Center for International Education will offer a mandatory Pre-Departure Orientation.
10. Finally, HAVE A WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE ABROAD!
