

Teaching Handouts: Event Selection

Name _____

STORY OR EVENT SELECTION

Consider how a repeated story represents more than just any old event.

Why do people need to retell this story?

What is the mood or tone of this story?

What emotions are involved?

What response is desired from the listener?

What is valued in the story?

What is portrayed negatively?

What changes in or after the story?

What implicit moral or lesson is learned from this story?

What similar stories exist in fiction or nonfiction?

What sociological or psychological issues are involved?

Do you have the ethical right to tell this story?

Nancy Mack
Wright State University