PreFlight is a one-week, residential bridge program for incoming, first-year Wright State students with disabilities.

PreFlight is a one-week, residential bridge program for incoming, first-year Wright State students with disabilities.

Arrival

Sunday, August 23

Departure

Thursday, August 27

(University move-in day)

Hosted by the Office of Disability Services, PreFlight gives students the opportunity to experience the Wright State community while participating in programming and activities designed to develop personal and academic survival skills, such as:

- understanding your rights and responsibilities as a college student with a disability
- time management
- reading and writing skills
- accessing and utilizing campus resources

Questions?
Please contact Jen Barga at (937) 775-5680 or jennifer.barga@wright.edu

Student application can be found online at: wright.edu/disability-services

Apply Today!