Wright State University

Honors Program

Study Abroad Scholarship

The University Honors Program has a small fund to assist students with study abroad. To be eligible, students must be registered for credit through Wright State University. Preference will be given to students who are actively participating in the University Honors Program. Study abroad awards typically range from $300 to $1,500.

To apply, attach to this form:

- A written description of your academic study abroad plans. This description must include a detailed budget with a list of any other sources of funding. The budget must be verified by a staff member from the University Center for International Education.
- A letter of reference from a faculty member in your area of study who can comment on how this study abroad experience will enhance your undergraduate education.
