United Way of the Greater Dayton Area fights for education, financial stability, and health for every person in our community. We win by forging partnerships, finding new solutions to old problems, mobilizing resources, and inspiring individuals to join the fight against a common foe: our community’s most daunting social issues.

#WhatWeDo

We build Partnerships:
United Way is committed to bringing people together to make sure we are all moving in the same direction and working towards a common set of goals.

We find solutions to problems:
United Way is committed to investing the dollars you donate to the Live United fund in strategies that solve problems.

We measure results:
United Way is committed to measuring the results of your investments by making sure the programs being funded are working.

We improve lives:
United Way is committed to helping people in immediate need and making investments in strategies that prevent people from falling into crisis.

Why Give to the Live United Fund?

When you make your donation to the Live United Fund you guarantee there are dollars available for programs and services that are designed to solve problems, improve lives and strengthen the Greater Dayton Area. Please consider making a donation to the Live United Fund and an investment in your community. Collectively we can, we must and we will improve lives!
