NOTICE

Title IX & WSU's Policy on Sex/Gender Based Harassment & Discrimination

TITLE IX

In compliance with Title IX, we are notifying all members of the WSU community of Wright State's policy and other resources related to Title IX and Sex/Gender based Harassment and discrimination.

Title IX: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

SEX/GENDER BASED HARASSMENT & DISCRIMINATION

Wright State University is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy educational and work environment in which no member of the university community is, on the basis of actual or perceived sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression and or sexual orientation, excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination in any university program or activity. Wright State University does not discriminate on the basis of sex or gender in its education programs and activities. Sex/Gender-based harassment and violence, including sexual violence, are forms of sex discrimination in that they deny or limit an individual's ability to participate in or benefit from university programs or activities.

The university believes in zero tolerance for sex and gender-based misconduct. Zero tolerance means that when an allegation of misconduct is brought to the appropriate administrator's attention, protective and other remedial measures will be used to reasonably ensure that such conduct ends, is not repeated, and the effects on the victim and community are remedied, including sanctions when a responding party is found to have violated this policy. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and the accompanying procedures establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

Nothing in this policy shall be construed to abridge academic freedom and inquiry, principles of free speech, any Collective Bargaining Agreements, the right to redress to the Ohio Civil Rights Commission or the Office for Civil Rights, or the university's educational mission.
