University policy may be found here: https://policy.wright.edu/policy/3685-commencement-participation
Wright State University holds two commencement ceremonies each year. The first ceremony is Fall Commencement which is held in December. Summer and Fall graduates may participate in this ceremony. The second ceremony is Spring Commencement which is held the last Saturday of April or the first Saturday of May. Students are eligible and encouraged to participate in the first commencement ceremony following the term in which they complete a program of study. Students indicate their intention to attend commencement when they apply to graduate.

Students who are unable to attend due to military obligation or documented emergency are eligible to attend the first commencement ceremony following the end of the obligation or emergency. Such students must appropriately inform the Registrar’s office of their intent to participate, including documentation showing cause for the exception, before the normal deadline for graduation/commencement participation listed on the Ceremony Information page.
