

As required by the U.S. Department of Education, the Wright State University Office of Financial Aid assigns a cost of attendance (COA) budget before offering students financial aid. The COA budget includes allowances for these costs:

- Tuition and fees
- Books and supplies
- Housing and food
- Transportation
- Personal expenses

Sometimes students incur additional education-related expenses that are not included in the cost of attendance. An adjustment to the COA can be made for certain expenses (see below). Adjustments to the cost of attendance increase the budget, allowing students the ability to obtain additional financial aid, typically in the form of loans. Loan options may include a federal loan, an alternative loan, or for a dependent student, parents can apply for the Parent PLUS Loan.

Cost of Attendance Adjustment - Policy

Annually, and on a case-by-case basis, the Office of Financial Aid may increase a student's COA for additional education-related expenses incurred during the academic year. The 2025-2026 academic year includes Summer 2025, Fall 2025, and Spring 2026.

Cost of Attendance Adjustment - Process

For the 2025-2026 academic year, students must complete and return the Cost of Attendance Adjustment form and supporting documentation to Enrollment Services no later than April 1, 2026. The submission of a Cost of Attendance Adjustment Form does not guarantee that a COA adjustment will occur.

Upon receiving the Cost of Attendance form, the Office of Financial Aid (OFA) will review the additional expense documentation. If approved, the OFA will increase the cost of attendance and evaluate the student's financial aid offer. The OFA will notify students via their Wright State University email account when the review is complete.
