Matthew,

My morning is becoming complicated, but my entire afternoon is open. What's best for you in the afternoon?

Best, Bruce

See email below.

I am a little slow responding to my workflow 😊

Would you have a few minutes to discuss this sometime tomorrow, Wednesday February 22? Morning works best for me, but 4pm works also.

Thanks

pm: Good afternoon, May I please volunteer to to help you rewrite your course learning objectives and course learning objectives? Here are some suggested edits... Objectives communicate and signal what a student "will" learn. Objectives are often written like this: Students enrolled in _____ will learn to: 1. Please state your learning objective 2. Please state your learning objective 3. Please state your learning objective Then... Course Learning Outcomes state what students can do as a result of their learning experience. Outcomes are often written like this: As a result of their learning experience in this course students can: 1. Please state your learning outcome 2. Please state your learning outcome 3. Please state your learning outcome Should you need any assistance I am available to meet next week. My calendar is up to date and we could easily meet via teams!
