The university's Flexible Spending Account (FSA) program allows eligible employees to receive pre-tax reimbursement for certain medical, dental and vision expenses and for qualifying dependent care expenses. Your taxable income reported for both federal and state income tax purposes is reduced by the amount of your FSA contributions. See the reverse side for important information about Flexible Spending Accounts.

General Information Regarding Flexible Spending Accounts

- You cannot change the amount of your FSA election or stop FSA contributions during the year unless you experience a qualifying change in family status such as the birth of a child, marriage, divorce, death of your spouse or child, or a change in your or your spouse's employment. Changes to your FSA elections must be consistent with the family status change.
- Reimbursement for qualifying expenses is only made via direct deposit. To create an account and establish direct deposit, visit it <http://www.wright.edu/hr/benefits/mycafepplan.pdf> for instructions or visit www.myCafeteriaPlan.com.
- Requests for FSA reimbursement must be filed by March 31 of the year following the year for which your FSA election is made.
- Please ensure elections are taken correctly from your pay and contributed to your account by monitoring account activity at www.mycafeteriaplan.com. If any discrepancies are noted, please contact the Department of Human Resources as soon as possible at (937) 775-2120.

Information Specific to Health Care Flexible Spending Accounts

- Any employee participating in a Health Savings Account (HSA) cannot elect a Health Care Flexible Spending Account.
- This account is for medical, dental, and vision care expenses that are not reimbursed by a health insurance plan. You will only be reimbursed for eligible expenses. For a listing of eligible expenses, please check www.myCafeteriaPlan.com and/or www.irs.gov.
- Expenses incurred by older adult children (ages 26 up to age 28) who are covered under your health plan are not eligible for reimbursement by your health care flexible spending account.
- Health care expenses claimed for reimbursement must be incurred in the period for which you pledged and made FSA contributions or within a 2 ½ month grace period (through March 15th) after the end of the plan year. Any employee enrolling in HDHP/HSA coverage for the following plan year must incur expenses and exhaust all funds by December 15th of the current plan year.

Information Specific to Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts

- This account is for child and other dependent care expenses that allow you and your spouse, if you are married, to work or attend school full-time. The expenses must be for a child under age 13 or a physically or mentally disabled dependent at any age that lives with you at least eight hours a day. The individual must be claimed as a dependent on your federal income tax return.
- Dependent care expenses claimed for reimbursement must be incurred in the period for which you pledged and made FSA contributions.
