

SAFE HAVEN

@ Counseling and Wellness Services

A safe, therapeutic group for individuals who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, pansexual, trans, queer, intersex, or are exploring their identity.

What is group like?

Group is safe, informative, supportive, helpful, and often fun. There is no preconceived notion of what should occur in group. The overall experience grows from the unique contributions of each person present.

What would I do in group?

The majority of discussion topics will be decided upon by members of the group. Past topics include but are not limited to: dating, sex, coming out, family, societal messages, and personal struggles.

How much does group cost?

Your first 10 sessions at CWS are FREE of charge!

Requirements/Group Pre-requisites

Be a Wright State student who identifies as lesbian, gay, bisexual, pansexual, trans*, intersex, genderqueer, or who is questioning or exploring their sexual orientation or gender identity.

Be available for group every Thursday from 3:30 - 4:50 PM in 053 STU

How do I sign up?

If you are interested in joining or want to learn more, contact

Counseling & Wellness Services

M-F 8:30 – 5:00

053 STU

937-775-3407

Facilitators: Sarah Peters and Andrew Voss