

Sign Language Interpreting Baccalaureate Completion Program

Students who complete the Interpreter Education A.A.S. at Sinclair Community College may transfer into the Sign Language Interpreting B.S. program at Wright State University.

Sinclair students may take additional courses beyond their associate degree in order to meet requirements for the Sign Language Interpreting degree. Students may complete the Ohio Transfer Module (OTM) before transferring in order to fulfill the Wright State general education program, called the Wright State Core. Consult a Sinclair advisor for more information. Students should verify their satisfactory academic progress (SAP) requirements with the financial aid office before pursuing classes outside of their associate degree.

Admission Requirements to Sign Language Interpreting major at Wright State
