

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES GROUP

Do you have questions or concerns that are important to you surrounding a disability?

Being a college student is hard enough without feeling like you don't have a community of supportive others! This group is inclusive of those with both physical and psychological disabilities and aims to connect you with students experiencing the world through similar lenses. It is a place for you to discuss your journey, seek other opinions, and celebrate your successes! Topics that may be covered include:

Sexuality || Relationship and social concerns

Academics and/or work || Adjustment to college life

Barriers and challenges in everyday life || Fears
