

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

Systems for Remote Access and Collaboration

- 1. Virtual Desktop Infrastructure (VDI Desktops)
  - a. For individuals who routinely access sensitive data, such as SSNs, health care information, bank account information, etc.
  - b. Require access to network storage (H, K, and R drives)
  - c. Call the CaTS Help Desk to request a VDI be setup for your use.
  - d. Instructions for VDI use: <https://www.wright.edu/information-technology/blog/article/installing-the-vmware-horizon-client>

- 2. WSU VPN
  - a. For individuals who need access to non-sensitive business documents located on network storage (H, K, and R drives)
  - b. Instruction for setting up the VPN client can be found here: <https://www.wright.edu/information-technology/security/access-your-network-files-from-your-home-computer>
  - c. All faculty and staff have access to the WSU VPN. There's no need to request special access to the use the WSU VPN.

- 3. Microsoft SharePoint and OneDrive
  - a. For individuals who need to collaborate on non-sensitive business documents that are not stored on network storage. <https://www.wright.edu/information-technology/services/office-365-overview>

- 4. WebEx
  - a. For general use to facilitate business meetings. <https://www.wright.edu/information-technology/services/cisco-webex-meeting-center>

For questions about any service CaTS provides, contact the CaTS Help Desk at (937) 775-4827.