

Event Types in EMS Information Sheet

Event Types	Description
Academic/Testing	Activities with an academic purpose such as official study sessions, tests, classes (w/ course #), etc. scheduled for WSU students.
Recruitment Activity	Activities designed by Univeristy Colleges/Departments for the recruitment of new students. This includes events like Raider Open House and new student Orientations.
Organization Meeting/Activity	Meetings to discuss WSU College, Department, Student Organization, or other University Organization business or activities for WSU College, Department, Student Organization, and/or other University Organization members only.
Student Engagement	Activities and events designed to enhance student life and/or learning opportunities for Wright State University students.
Faculty/Staff Engagement	Activities and events planned for Wright State University employees for training, awards, and/or social purposes.
Fundraising Event	Activities and event planned for the purpose of fundraising for WSU Colleges, Departments, Student Organizations, or other University Organizations, scholarships, etc.
Community Engagement	Activities and events planned by WSU College, Department, Student Organization, or other University Organization for a mixed University and Non-University audience.
Table (Internal)	Bookings at indoor or outdoor tabling locations on campus by WSU Colleges, Departments, Student Organizations, or other University Organizations.
Summer Program	Summer camps, conferences, and Pre-College activities (involving youth) that may be organized by either University or Non-University organizations and typically happen in Summer months.
Sponsored (Community Partner)	Activities and events with shared responsibility for planning/execution between University and Non-University organizations.
Government/Non-Profit (External)	Government Agency or Non-profit use of University space.
Community (External)	Non-University use of University space.
Vendor (Information/Sales)	Bookings by Non-University organizations at tabling locations on campus. (External)