NEED MORE TIME TO DECIDE WHERE YOU WANT TO LIVE THIS SPRING?

Take advantage of our 30-day temporary housing option. Move in anytime this December and enjoy a 30-day stay in The Woods, a residence hall community that features a microwave (no stove/oven), mini refrigerator, and suite-style bathroom. The bathroom will be shared with an adjoining room of students of the same gender.

Visit wright.edu/TemporaryHousing to submit a guest housing application. Before you arrive, you must pay a flat rate of $675, and your 30-day commitment will begin on the day you arrive. The standard $250 guest housing deposit will be waived for you as an international student.

If you decide to stay beyond your 30-day temporary housing commitment, you can submit a Spring Semester housing application, and your housing cost will be prorated for the remainder of the semester based on your arrival date. Please note: this option may require you to move into a different room.
