2) Wright State Multicultural Affairs & Community Engagement Event:

Wright State University's Diversity in the Multicultural Millennium Conference, which began as Quest for Community in 2001, will take a new form this year, exploring diversity challenges and promising practices in a modern multicultural context.

Wright State University's
MULTICULTURAL
AFFAIRS & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

This year's theme, "Affirmative Action: 52 Years of Debate," will examine diversity issues in higher education and their impact on the broader community.

7) Homecoming Tailgates and Games Saturday, October 12

Raider Homecoming!

Join us for beer, pub food, football, chili and soccer during Homecoming weekend!

Club Football Tailgate: Noon - 2:00 p.m.

Join us in a pub like atmosphere where you can watch some football and catch up with friends. Your tailgate ticket includes an array of heavy appetizers including chicken wings, slider hamburgers, build your own nachos, fried pickles, assorted veggies and two drink tickets.

Club Football Game: 2:00 p.m.

Wright State University's Club Football Team is a student run, student led club and they are nationally ranked in the NCFA!

The Homecoming Festival Tailgate and Chili Cook-off: 3:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Free for all participants. Help us celebrate the annual chili cook-off tradition and enjoy the party like atmosphere before the men's soccer game.

Men's soccer game: 5:00 p.m.

Cheer on Wright State Men's Soccer as they take on Horizon League opponent, Oakland.

If you plan to attend both games and the tailgate before the Club Football game you can purchase a discounted "day pass" and receive tickets to all of the events.

Alumni Association Member All Day Pass - $18

Non Alumni Association Member All Day Pass - $20

Game tickets and Club Football tailgate tickets may also be purchased separately.
