

The Departmental Honors Scholar degree designation is awarded through the University Honors Program at Wright State University.

	Requirements
Eligibility Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cumulative and/or major GPAs • Earned credit hours 	Junior or Senior students who have maintained a 3.0 cumulative average, a 3.0 cumulative in department content courses, and are enrolled in the College of Education and Human Services, may apply for the Honors Program in Kinesiology and Health.
Proposal and Approval Process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requirements for a student proposal • Details about the department's approval of the proposal 	Junior standing is a prerequisite for entering the Honors Program. The nature of the student's honors project may require additional prerequisite courses. This is to be determined by the student's honor advisor in consultation with the honors coordinator. The student must submit an application and a letter of recommendation from a faculty member of the program area in which they plan to work to the Honors Committee for approval.
Academic Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Length, scope, and nature of the research/project/internship/co-op/performance • Course(s), credit hours (typically 3-6 semester hours), and required grades • Presentation (if required) 	Students will complete an honors project under the guidance of a faculty advisor <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The student will enroll for two successive semesters in KNH 4880, for a total of six hours. If the nature of the project is such that it requires more than two academic quarters for work, the student, with the approval of the honors advisor and the honors coordinator, may enroll in this course for an additional three credit hours. The honors project may deal with any topic or problem related to health, physical education, athletic training, and sports medicine. The project may take on the character of library research, fieldwork, development of curriculum materials, study of classroom strategies, or any facet of the general area in which the student is interested. The students are encouraged to do interdisciplinary work involving two or more program areas within the College of Education and Human Services or the assistance of another department within the university.
Evaluation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe the criterion • List who will determine satisfactory completion of the departmental honors requirements 	When the project is completed, the student will prepare both a written and oral presentation. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A committee composed of the honors coordinator, the faculty members of the Honors Committee, and the student's honors advisor, will evaluate the project. Faculty from other departments of the university may be asked to join the evaluation

	committee on a consulting basis whenever the nature of the project involves extensive work in that department. b. The project will be assigned a grade according to the majority of the Evaluation Committee. To receive honors credit, a grade of A is required. A student, whose work is evaluated as B or C, shall receive credit only. The student may request time to do additional work and a second evaluation to elevate a grade of B or C to A. Arrangements for a second evaluation must be made within two weeks of the first evaluation. Such arrangements will include proposed changes and a time line for completion. These arrangements must be made with the approval of the honors coordinator. Only one reevaluation will be permitted. c. Students who do not complete the project will be evaluated by their advisor on the work completed and they will be granted three credit hours if the work is satisfactory. These are not honors credits and are not applicable to future honors work. d. Oral presentation of honors is open to both faculty and students.
Project Oversight <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Detail who will serve as a student's project advisor (a single faculty member, department committee, and/or department chair) 	Single faculty member will oversee the project.
Timeline <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe the typical timeline for completion of the project, including milestones for when a student should apply to, begin work on, and complete the project 	Junior year project submission and initiate work. Completion of project prior to graduation.
Forms <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attach any forms a student must complete in conjunction with the departmental honors project (admission, approval, etc.) 	No specific forms needed.