Spousal Insurance Coverage Policy

The objective of the Spousal Insurance Coverage Policy is to recognize all forms of health coverage that may be available to a participating employee's family. In the event a spouse is employed and has access to health insurance coverage through their employer the Policy positions the other employer to be the primary payer of their own employee's medical claims if the coverage is deemed affordable according to the Affordable Care Act (ACA).

Please note: All employees who desire to enroll a spouse on their Wright State medical plan as primary or secondary coverage are required to submit a Spousal Employment Verification form. Additionally, this policy does not impact your spouse's eligibility for dental and vision insurance, health savings and flexible spending accounts, dependent life insurance, tuition remission, or employee assistance program.

The verification process determines the status of your spouse in one of 3 categories:

- A. Spouse is employed and eligible for primary coverage through their employer-sponsored plan
 - B. Spouse is employed and not eligible for primary coverage through their employer-sponsored plan
 - C. Spouse is unemployed, self-employed, retired, and eligible for or enrolled in Medicare, Medicaid, or Tricare
- A. If your spouse is employed and eligible for primary coverage through their employer-sponsored plan (outside of Wright State), and the coverage is affordable as deemed by the ACA, your spouse must enroll in their employer's medical plan as primary coverage. You can enroll your spouse on your Wright State medical plan as secondary coverage or waive coverage for your spouse.
- B. If your spouse is employed and not eligible for primary coverage through their employer-sponsored plan (outside of Wright State), you may enroll your spouse on your Wright State medical plan as primary coverage.
- C. If your spouse is unemployed, self-employed, retired, and eligible for or enrolled in Medicare, Medicaid, or Tricare, you may enroll your spouse on your Wright State medical plan as primary coverage.

If both you and your spouse are employed by Wright State, you may enroll your spouse on your Wright State medical plan as primary coverage. If enrolling jointly, the spouse with the highest annualized salary is required to be the policyholder.
