Gather the following 3 pieces of information from student workers before starting summer re-hire process:
1. The number of summer semester credit hours student is taking.
2. The student’s spring semester status (regular or work study).
3. The student’s summer semester status (regular or work study).

Use that information and the chart below to determine what documents, if any, are required to re-hire student.