What are the guidelines in place for identifying if a person/firm being hired does not meet the qualifications? If the person/firm being hired does not meet the qualifications, agreements, expectations, achievements, or any other form of success?

What policies are in place to address the academic integrity of the candidate?

Are policies for replacing search committee members in place?

What are the formal policies governing executive search committees?