A. Introduction of Trustee Scholars

Every year two undergraduate students are selected to receive the Trustees' Scholarship from a highly competitive pool of applicants. To be eligible for this high honor, he or she must meet two of the three qualifications listed here:

- Have a cumulative GPA of 3.75 or higher
- Rank in the top 5 percent of their high school graduating class
- Have an ACT composite, or SAT combined math and critical reading score, at or above the 95th percentile

It is my pleasure to recognize our 2015-2016 Trustee Scholars. Please stand as I call your name. Mr. Don Hoang is a graduate of Beaver Creek High School and a first year student at Wright State. Don is a Biomedical Engineering major with plans for medical school.

Mr. Josiah McCarther comes to Wright State from northern Ohio close to Mansfield and is a graduate of Lexington High School. Josiah is a first year student majoring in Mechanical Engineering.

Please join me in congratulating Don Hoang and Josiah McCarther on their selection as Trustee Scholars and welcoming both of these honor students to Wright State.
