

WOMEN IN STEMM LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE 2015 KICKOFF DINNER

Event speakers highlighted by:

Gen. Ellen M. Pawlikowski,
Commander of the Air Force
Materiel Command at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base; a command that employs some 80,000 people and manages $60
billion annually.

Nan Whaley,
City of Dayton Mayor, leading a diverse group of business and community partners to strategically position Dayton for major growth.

The Women in STEMM Leadership Institute brings together 300+ female students and leaders across diverse industries including dynamic thinkers in business and academia. The mission of the Women in STEMM Leadership Institute is to connect the power and intellect of this multi-generational gathering to address the Dayton area's future, with a special interest in STEMM. In order to achieve meaningful impact, leaders must connect with a diverse assortment of stakeholders to guide the Miami Valley around a shared vision.

4:30-5:15 – Registration and Networking
5:15-6:00 – Dinner
6:00-7:00 – Speakers

The event is primarily for:
(1) female students grade 9 through undergrad and graduate degree seekers, and
(2) professional women open to sharing their amazing roles within STEMM, their stories and their advice for the next generation.

Thanks to a generous grant provided by the Wright Patt Credit Union, the suggested donation is $5 for students and $10 for professionals.
