IX. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

A. University Update

Dr. Hopkins thanked Mr. Bridges for mentioning Emily Bingham and her recent success as a semi-finalist in the College Bowl version of Jeopardy.

Statement from the President

I want to make a statement today. I want to be very clear, so I am going to read this statement because as you know I can get off track when I start just talking off the cuff. First of all, this being the first public board meeting of 2016, and we are quickly approaching the 50th anniversary of our great university in 2017, I want to take this opportunity and thank all of you. I know there has been great work going on for many, many years as we try to transition Wright State to be a more relevant institution for the 21st century. I think that the progress we have made has been incredible.

And at the same time I fully acknowledge that recent actions by a few individuals within Wright State were not acceptable and lacked appropriate oversight. These recent missteps and their public amplification have saddened me, and I know many of you, having cast our university in an unfavorable light. And I certainly bear full responsibility in a sense that these events have happened under my watch. As President, I want you to know that I have fully committed myself to doing everything possible to restoring the public trust and image of our great institution. Like you, and I look around this room and I know how you care deeply about what we do here, I too have given my heart and soul to this institution. I don’t plan to stop doing that now.

In particular, I am pleased to report that we have completed a comprehensive review of administrative processes and modifications have been, and are being made, where necessary. Our new processes are designed to ensure transparency and best-practice compliance in the operations of the University. I think you all know that the regulations and challenges we face in a fast growing institution are complex.

In addition, I am also announcing today a leadership initiative designed to address the growing financial challenges we face in our efforts to better serve our students, staff and faculty, and most importantly to achieve the critical mission of Wright State University.

I have directed Provost Sudkamp and Chief Financial Officer Ulliman (both long time, dedicated and great colleagues of our University) and have charged them to oversee the design and implementation of a long-term operational plan that will carefully align all activities of programs and units to ensure fiscal efficiency in advancing the core mission of student success in adherence with best-practice national models.

They will solicit input from the Finance committee of the Board of Trustees, College/School Deans, Vice Presidents, the Faculty Senate, and staff councils during the development of this plan. We will share the plan, and all its details with the campus community during our annual Budget Workshop on June 2, 2016.

Once approved, I will charge the Provost and our CFO to execute the plan and will personally be accountable to the Board of Trustees for its success. The College/School Deans and VP’s will be charged to embrace the plan and fully support the Provost and CFO in its implementation.

Let me close by saying; we are, along with many other public universities, facing a “new normal” that will require some tough decisions and steady leadership throughout our campus.

But, I am confident, as we have done before, that we will all unite in our resolve and emerge as a stronger University with an enhanced ability to carry out our unique and important mission to serve students for generations to come.

X. REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

A. Academic Affairs Committee

Mrs. Broner called the meeting to order at 8:33 a.m. on January 22, 2016 and read the following conflict of interest statement.

It is of utmost importance to ensure that all university decisions are free from any real or perceived conflicts of interest.

Therefore, please be mindful of all obligations with which you have been charged as a Trustee of Wright State University, and take the steps you deem appropriate to perform your duties fairly and impartially.

- Provost Report

Dr. Tom Sudkamp reported on the combined Main and Lake Campus enrollment numbers as of the first week of Spring Semester. Undergraduate enrollment is up .7% and graduate enrollment is up 3.2%. Main Campus headcount is up 1% and Lake Campus increased enrollment by 7.8%. Total credit hours remain essentially flat over last year with a slight .1% decrease. The final Fourteen Day enrollment numbers will be released and reported to the state at the end of January.

Dr. Sudkamp offered the following personnel updates. Dr. Joe Keferl has assumed the position of Dean of the College of Education as of January 1st. Mr. Larry Chan has been hired as the Vice President for Legal Affairs and General Counsel and will begin his position on March 1st. Dr. Stephen Foster, associate vice president for the Center for International Education, is stepping down at the end of February and Dr. Henry Limouze has assumed the interim position effective January 25th. A nationwide search will be starting for this position and for the Dean of the College of Science and Math.

Wright State received a $700,000 grant from the Department of Education to support the College Credit Plus program. Dr. Sudkamp recognized Ms. Mary Ellen Ashley, vice president for enrollment management, for her role in securing this grant. The College Credit Plus program gives high school students an opportunity to take college level coursework for college credit while still in high school. The grant provides $500,000 in scholarships for area high school teachers to train at Wright State to teach college level courses at their respective high schools. The remaining $200,000 of the grant allows Wright State to develop the teaching curriculum to train these teachers.

1. Low Enrollment Courses and Programs

Dr. Sudkamp outlined a state budgetary requirement whereby all state institutions must create and submit a review of all low enrollment courses. Wright State’s report for the Chancellor identifies those courses below a defined level of student enrollment, the methods used to identify those courses, and the proposed action recommendations.

Expected outcomes from this evaluation include the identification of opportunities to course share with other institutions, opportunities for curricular restructuring, and the elimination of unnecessary courses. The Board of Trustees received copies of this report and of an additional report covering a review of low enrollment programs. Moving forward, the university will be required to submit a low enrollment report every five years.

The following resolution was presented to the Board of Trustees for approval.

RESOLUTION 16-28

WHEREAS, Am. Sub. H. B. No. 64, Section 3345.35 requires the Board of Trustees of each state institution of higher education to evaluate all courses and programs the institution offers based on enrollment and student performance in each course or program; and

WHEREAS Wright State University has specified thresholds for low enrollment programs and courses and identified programs and courses for consideration as low enrollment; and

WHEREAS Wright State University has identified courses to be considered for collaboration with regional institutions of higher education; and

WHEREAS the Chancellor of the Ohio Department of Higher Education has required submission of a report to the Ohio Department of Higher Education that shall be comprised of

- Institutional definitions of course and program thresholds;
- A description of the process and data used to identify courses that meet the chancellor’s definition of low enrollments, e.g.,
  - Number of courses reviewed
• Number of courses determined to meet the chancellor’s definitions of low enrollment
• A summary of recommended actions for each low enrollment course (e.g., number of courses targeted for elimination because of curricular restructuring, modification of course section or timing; or collaboration with other institutions through course sharing); and

WHEREAS Wright State University has produced a report entitled Low Enrollment Course Report that satisfies the preceding requirements; therefore be it

RESOLVED that the Wright State University submits the accompanying Low Enrollment Course Report to the Ohio Department of Higher Education.

Mrs. Broner moved for approval. Ms. Ramos seconded, and the motion was unanimously approved by roll call vote.

2. Emeritus Request

The following resolution was presented to the Board of Trustees for consideration:

RESOLUTION 16-29

WHEREAS, faculty members who have served ten or more years as fully-affiliated and full-time members at Wright State University will automatically be granted the emeritus title upon retirement and upon written request by the faculty member to the provost; and

WHEREAS, Charlotte Harris, Associate Professor of Teacher Education, served the university from 2000-2015 in a fully-affiliated and full-time status and has requested emeritus status; therefore be it

RESOLVED that the request for emeritus status for the aforementioned faculty member, as submitted to this meeting be, and the same hereby is endorsed.

Mrs. Broner moved for approval. General Moore seconded, and the motion was unanimously approved by roll call vote.

• HLC Reaffirmation Visit

Over the last two years, Wright State University has been preparing
Dr. Sudkamp briefed the Board on the upcoming HLC site visit scheduled for March 21-22, 2016. Wright State will submit an online assurance argument on February 20th demonstrating compliance with all five of the accreditation criteria and its 23 subcomponents. After the written assurance argument and all of its supporting documents are reviewed by the seven member HLC committee, the committee will travel to Wright State to meet with individuals across campus to further clarify their understanding of the material submitted. At the completion of the visit the committee will prepare a report of their findings rating each criteria and subcomponent as “met”, “meets with concerns”, or “does not meet”. For any areas deemed “unmet”, there would be further follow-up and corrective action required.

Satisfactory completion of the HLC peer review process is necessary to ensure institutional quality, alignment with mission, student focus on learning, and to maintain eligibility for students to receive federal funding.

B. Building and Grounds Committee

Dr. Anuj Goyal called the meeting to order at 10:48 a.m. on January 22, 2016 and read the following conflict of interest statement.

It is of utmost importance to ensure that all university decisions are free from any real or perceived conflicts of interest.

Therefore, please be mindful of all obligations with which you have been charged as a Trustee of Wright State University, and take the steps you deem appropriate to perform your duties fairly and impartially.

- 2016 Presidential Debate Update

Dr. Robert Sweeney, executive vice president for planning, offered an update on the plans for the 2016 Presidential Debate. Wright State University will hold the first Presidential Debate on Monday, September 26, 2016. The format on the debate will dictate the layout of the Nutter Center and the number of tickets available. Tickets are allocated to the Debate Commission, to the Presidential candidates and their party, and to the hosting venue. Wright State has committed our ticket allocation to students and we are working on a lottery system and Selection Party for the awarding of these tickets.
Wright State is also committed to making the Debate an opportunity for our students to volunteer and intern in areas that will enhance their learning. In addition, we are reaching out to area K-12 schools, to community partners, and to regional partners to make this a regional opportunity for learning about, and celebrating, the democratic process.

For those individuals looking to volunteer and become involved in the planning process please send an email to debate.volunteer@wright.edu with the subject line VOLUNTEER. Please list your name, preferred email, telephone number, and preference for how you would like to be involved.

1. 2016 Presidential Debate Budget

The Commission on Presidential Debate (CPD) still has a number of decisions to make that will significantly impact the budgetary requirements for the event. Budget drivers include security requirements, the type of debate format, candidate preparation space, the number of audience in attendance, space and technology for the media, transportation, the credentialing center, and infrastructure improvements among other items. CPD decision timelines can extend all the way up to August which makes anticipating expenses and preparing a firm budget difficult.

Dr. Sweeney, chair of the debate planning process, presented a draft budget totaling $8 million to the Board of Trustees outlining the anticipated income and expenses for the event. Fund raising plans are being developed to secure state and federal funds as well as corporate and foundation sponsors. Cost recoveries and in-kind contributions will also be used to offset Debate expenses.

With funds not yet in place, the Board of Trustees was asked to approve a resolution to incur expenses associated with hosting the debate.

RESOLUTION 16-30

WHEREAS, Wright State University is honored to be selected as the host site for the first 2016 Presidential Debate; and

WHEREAS, Wright State University will incur expenses associated with hosting the debate; and

WHEREAS, Wright State University is committed to raising all funds external to the university; and
WHEREAS, in order for the university to prepare for the debate, expenses will be incurred in advance of the funds being raised; and

WHEREAS, the draft budget will be refined as the Commission on Presidential Debates further clarifies Wright State University's unique requirements, therefore be it

RESOLVED that authorization is granted for the university to incur expenses as described in the draft budget now before the Board of Trustees be, and hereby is approved.

General Moore moved for approval. Mrs. Broner seconded, and the motion was unanimously approved by roll call vote.

C. Finance Committee

Mr. Fecher called the meeting to order at 2:07 p.m. on January 22, 2016 and read the following conflict of interest statement.

It is of utmost importance to ensure that all university decisions are free from any real or perceived conflicts of interest.

Therefore, please be mindful of all obligations with which you have been charged as a Trustee of Wright State University, and take the steps you deem appropriate to perform your duties fairly and impartially.

- Statement from Vice Chair Doug Fecher

Trustee Doug Fecher, chair of the finance committee, began the meeting with the following comments:

As Board Members we are obligated to oversee the University's ongoing financial condition and work with the administration to ensure a prudent plan is in place for providing the financial resources required of a world class public university.

We are all aware that WSU's financial condition has declined the past two years as indicated by recent operating deficits and corresponding reductions in reserves. Our balance sheet remains strong, however, which positions us to take thoughtful and measured action to return to growth in net assets. I am confident that the framework of a financial plan is in place and that the University understands the importance of implementing a prudent and effective plan for reversing financial trends of the last two years.

It is important to understand the reasons for recent deficits. The primary cause is that revenues fell relatively quickly while reductions in operating expenses have not kept pace. Specifically:

- In 2012 the State of Ohio cut $15 million in state support, resulting in an immediate reduction in revenue. In addition, in-state undergraduate tuition rates are frozen for the current biennial budget.

- Investment returns in the most recent fiscal year declined from $17 million to $4 million due to market conditions, a reduction of more than $13 million.

- A lingering downward impact on revenue from the conversion from quarters to semesters from a few years ago. This is because many students accelerated their studies to graduate prior to the conversion. WSU receives state support based upon an average of the previous three year’s graduation rates, and the high level of pre-conversion graduation has now fallen out of the formula thereby impacting the graduation averages upon which state support is calculated.

- The poor economy during the Great Recession resulted in an increase in enrollment as people who had lost jobs sought training and education to find new employment. However, many of those students did not stay in school to earn a degree. Tuition from these students declined as they left school, resulting in downward pressure on revenues we are now just recovering from.

- Finally, the university chose to invest in strategic projects designed to increase long term enrollment and graduation rates which are primary drivers of revenue. Examples include strategic real estate purchases to accommodate growth and investments in student success initiatives. These investments were thoughtfully made but payback in increased enrollment and graduation will take years to develop.
As a result of operating deficits the last two years, the Board has requested a comprehensive financial plan from the Administration and as mentioned, a framework for such a plan is in place.

It is important to understand, however, that returning to operating surpluses will likely take some time due to the nature of the university’s revenues and expenses. It is likely that the university will realize operating deficits for the next two fiscal years and maybe three before returning to positive growth in net assets.

The framework of the administration’s financial plan has several elements. These include:

1. Growing enrollment and graduation. Higher enrollment produces increased tuition even at today’s frozen tuition rates, and higher graduation numbers result in increased state support over time. This is why the 4% increase in the number of graduates in 2015 was an encouraging result, and I encourage Trustees to pay particular attention to growth in enrollment and graduation rates as a primary indicator of future revenues.

2. Strategic Hiring. Employment is about two thirds of WSU’s base budget and the plan calls for a higher degree of diligence around staffing decisions, particularly as positions become vacant due to retirement and other departures.

3. Centralized space planning will enhance space utilization and reduce costs thru greater space efficiency.

4. Tighter requirements for approving funding for new projects will ensure the majority of funding is in place prior to beginning capital projects; and

5. Tighter financial and contract controls. This means scrutinizing university expenses to align actual spending with available resources. This aspect of the financial plan may require deferral of some projects and perhaps even the elimination of others until the university returns to positive growth in net assets.

In addition to the financial plan which is still under development, the university has discussed the following financial goals:

1. That by fiscal year ending 2020, it is our goal to fund the base budget without relying on income from investments.
2. That the university’s financial policy, developed in 2003, will be updated in 2016 to reflect the current environment. The revised financial policy will be presented to the Board of Trustees yet in 2016.

3. That the Board of Trustees will review and monitor a budget for the 2016 Presidential Debate and that the cost of the debate will be funded 100% via fundraising and thus have a minimal impact on the current base budget and associated reserves.

4. That the university’s business and finance group, under Mr. Ulliman’s direction, will provide the Board with stronger ways of measuring the university’s financial progress. Measurements will be provided in several areas, including measurements of Senate Bill 6 compliance, measures of long term financial trends, and interim measures of financial performance during the fiscal year.

I would like to finish by acknowledging that the Board of Directors and Administration understand that there are no shortcuts to remediating the university’s financial situation. Options on the revenue side are limited: Tuition rates are frozen which puts a premium on growth in enrollment. In addition, an emphasis on helping students reach the finish line of graduation faster is also critical because of graduation-based state support.

But the real answer lies in our careful management of and stewardship of operating expenses. The university is working to craft a financial plan that addresses both revenue and expenses, but clearly these plans must be weighted towards careful control of operating expenses as the most expedient course to financial success. The role of the Board of Trustees is to work with the administration to help monitor financial performance and provide oversight and support for the administration’s efforts to control operating expenses.

I would make one last point as chairman of the Finance Committee. WSU is rightfully proud that it offers a high quality education at one of the lowest levels of tuition in the state. However, to be the “best university for the world”, as President Hopkins often says, we need to invest and spend for growth in enrollment and educational quality, while making the absolute most of our financial resources. We are a great university, with a great faculty, strong administrative staff, a deserving student population, and we have an indelible reputation throughout Raider country. Prompt attention to long term financial health will enable this university to serve each of these stakeholders long into the future, and the entire university community must be united behind putting its shoulder to this task. I am confident that this is exactly what we as a Board can expect.

Vice President’s Report

Mr. Jeff Ulliman expressed gratitude for his new role as Vice President for Business and Finance and welcomed this new opportunity to contribute to the future improvements and successes of the university.

Mr. Ulliman offered the Board a review of key financial metrics used by the University to monitor and assess its financial health. Annual Financial Metrics are reported in November and incorporate University reserve levels, operating performance, and debt levels to compute the various ratings, composite scores, or ratios used to gauge financial strength. The Board also receives and reviews Board Financial Measures and Interim Financial Metrics as part of their oversight process. All 2015 measures provided were without the effect of the recent pension standard. This practice is consistent with the State of Ohio’s reporting view and will be maintained until new standard measures are developed that better incorporate the financial impacts of the pension reporting changes.

As part of a university emphasis on controlling operating expenses, Mr. Ulliman described the strategic hiring process. The goal of the strategic hiring process is to utilize attrition to strategically reduce the personnel budget and ultimately fund all prioritized positions at the university not currently base budgeted. Under this process, when a department or division makes a decision to hire they must provide the strategic hiring committee metrics and rational for the hiring position. Examples of these metrics include current staffing levels, benchmarking, and programmatic priorities. While natural attrition is neither controllable nor predictable, the strategic hiring process is showing success with aligning staffing levels at the appropriate level and lowering costs.

Other expense control initiatives include the Centralized Space Planning and Space Review process to maximize utilization of space and to guide capital expenditures. Additional monitoring has been instituted for non-personnel spending and for review of large pockets of expenditures such as student employment, fee waiver scholarships and procurement card expenses. All of these areas are being analyzed for cost savings.

- Calendar Year 2015 Annual Investment Performance

Due to weather cancellations on the east coast, Mr. J.P. Cavaliere from SEI was unable to be in attendance to update the Board on the year end investment report. The briefing has been rescheduled for February.

1. Approval of Expenditures over $500,000

Ms. Gheretta Harris, executive director business services, reviewed the expenditures over $500,000. Trustee Broner noted a potential conflict of interest with the approval of the contract with Good Samaritan Hospital and elected not to participate in the discussion or approval process.

Mr. Fecher moved for approval. Mr. Bridges seconded, Mrs. Broner abstained, and the motion passed 4-0-1 by roll call vote.

- FY16 Efficiency Initiative Update

  Ms. Tina Heigel, university controller, reviewed highlights of Wright State’s FY16 Efficiency Initiative Report. The Chancellor of Ohio Education has appointed a standing Efficiency Advisory Committee to request annual reports from each state institution outlining their efforts to optimize efficiency and create cost savings. Preparations for Wright State’s report included the collection of 238 responses from academic and administrative units across campus showing an aggregate value of almost 12 million dollars in efficiencies or cost savings. Out of 40 categories of efficiencies captured in the state report, Wright State had 6 efficiencies selected to be highlighted in the final state report due to their new or unique approach to best practice.

- Student Affairs Committee

  Ms. Grace Ramos called the meeting to order at 9:35 a.m. on January 22, 2016 and read the following conflict of interest statement.

  Therefore, please be mindful of all obligations with which you have been charged as a Trustee of Wright State University, and take the steps you deem appropriate to perform your duties fairly and impartially.

- Vice President’s Report

  Dr. Dan Abrahamowicz provided updates on activities and programs taking place during the spring semester of 2016, including Parents and Family Weekend, the Omicron Delta Kappa student leadership conference, and Academic Integrity Week. The Nutter Center will host performances by major artists Lil Wayne and Fall Out Boy.

  The Adventure Summit, presented by the Student Union and Campus Recreation in partnership with Five Rivers MetroParks, will welcome thousands of visitors to Wright State from across the region. Paralympian Amy Purdy will be the featured speaker, presented in partnership with the Presidential Lecture Series.
In Athletics news, Kim Demmings recently became the all-time leading scorer in Horizon League history for women's basketball.

Ms. Simone Polk, assistant vice president for student services, presented information on the Bias Incident Response Team (BIRT). BIRT was established in 2006 as an interdivisional team to foster civility, student development, diversity, freedom of expression, and personal empowerment in response to concerns regarding speech and other forms of expression. Through BIRT, students have the opportunity to submit reports on situations that may be hurtful but are not violations of student conduct or university policy. BIRT works to help the university balance First Amendment rights with students' wishes for civility and community by offering a safe process for students to voice their concerns. This facilitates conflict resolution and offers education and training to the campus community.

Student Government Report

Student Government president Gavin Doll and SGA vice president Kayla Muncie provided updates on current initiatives. The new Student Organization Achievement Recognition (SOAR) program provides additional resources to student organizations and removes barriers to receiving support for their activities. Recent events such as Raider Roundup and the Student Government House Party introduced students to the various student organizations and offered outlets for entertainment on campus.

In anticipation of the Presidential Debate to be held on Wright State’s campus, SGA will collaborate with the deans of the colleges, College Democrats, and College Republicans to host a Student Government Presidential Debate and several “Meet the Candidate” events to introduce candidates for SGA senator positions.

Student Government plans to work with various campus units to initiate a Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee. SGA will work with University College and First Year Programs to offer a week of programs to familiarize undecided students with the various majors and programs.

Ms. Muncie and Mr. Doll also reported on two new universal restrooms available on campus and a trial run on vending machines offering an expanded selection of healthy snack options.
• Updates

Dr. Daniela Burnworth, associate director of clinical training for Counseling and Wellness Services (CWS), discussed state mandates for suicide prevention and mental health education programs. House Bill 28 requires all Ohio higher education institutions to have direct services, multi-media services, and student communication plans in place to educate students about suicide prevention and mental health resources available on campus and in the local community.

Required services include on- and off-campus counseling, telephone hotlines, mobile applications, and a comprehensive website listing all available services. Wright State currently offers counseling through CWS and access to “Raider Cares”, a 24-hour crisis hotline. CWS conducts outreach activities for students across campus and is designing a bystander intervention program that is scheduled to be implemented in March. A comprehensive website listing all suicide prevention and mental health services still needs to be developed.

Last year, CWS saw 770 clients and made 7,000 clinical contacts. Of the students who have utilized their services, 38% reported seriously considering suicide, and 12% reported a past suicide attempt. Of the students on the wait list for services, 50% reported suicide ideation, and 15% reported a past suicide attempt.

Dr. Gary Dickstein, assistant vice president for student affairs, discussed several collaborative efforts within the Division of Student Affairs that are designed to address the needs of students with mental health and behavioral concerns. The Student Concern Committee, Health and Wellness Conferences, and Care and Concern Meetings are three systems in place that are designed to identify students of concern, evaluate their behavior, assess their needs, and refer them to the services they need to be successful.

E. Student Trustee Report

Mr. Ryan Pignatiello welcomed everyone back to the first Board meeting in 2016 and offered highlights of happenings around campus. The Office of LGBTQA Affairs recently celebrated the opening of their new location and in February the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee is collaborating with Alex’s Lemonade Stand at the Adventure Summit to raise money towards the fight against childhood cancer.
Amy Purdy, 2014 Paralympic bronze medalist in snow-boarding, will speak at Wright State on February 12, 2016 as part of the Presidential Lecture Series. Ms. Purdy, who lost both her legs below the knee due to illness, will speak on “Living Beyond Limits”.

Parents and Family Weekend is planned for mid-February. Events include a Monte Carlo Night, a keynote address from Board Chair Michael Bridges on “Living like a Raider”, Women’s and Men’s basketball games, and breakfast with Dr. Hopkins.

Also planned for that weekend is the 11th Annual Omicron Delta Kappa (ODK) Leader2Leader Conference. Students will have an opportunity to take their leadership abilities to “infinity and beyond”.

Trustee Pignatiello commended senior Emily Bingham on the outstanding job she did representing Wright State University in the Jeopardy College Bowl Edition competition.

There are still many events planned before the end of Spring Semester including April Craze, Relay for Life, the opening of Raider Baseball and Softball seasons, and the much anticipated visit from Tom Hanks.

F. Faculty Senate President’s Report

Dr. Carol Loranger, senate president, offered the following statement.

The Faculty Senate continues our routine work of updating and clarifying academic policies and reviewing curriculum. As we have only had one Senate meeting since my last report to the Board in December, I will save the particulars until we can give a complete accounting for the semester in April.

I would like to report, however, on the current temper of the Faculty, who work sedulously at our duties of teaching, research and service, and believe rightly that our work, our hard work, has over the years burnished the reputation of this university and provided so many of the points of pride that President Hopkins foregrounds when he talks about Wright State. We feel that we are Wright State and Wright State is us. So it is not surprising that, given the frequent, almost weekly bastings the institution has been getting in the news since summer, the faculty have become increasingly unhappy, frustrated, and cynical. What is the way forward?
President Hopkins rightly accepts responsibility for things that have happened upon his watch. We accept his statement of responsibility and we further accept

- his pledge that a comprehensive financial plan to return the university to positive growth in net assets and fund its base budget without relying on investment income is being developed by the Provost and Chief Financial Officer, and that Faculty leadership will remain apprised of its progress as the semester wears on

- as well as the assurance, given to faculty leadership on Thursday that the plan will be made with respect to maintaining our academic mission and will be adhered to, without exceptions made for special interests, individuals and groups, and that it will be felt equally by upper administration, auxiliaries and service units as well as by the colleges.

The administration has committed to transparency and we Faculty will be expecting it. President Hopkins has always been notable for his optimism and accessibility to the university community, and we commend him for his readiness to seek and listen to our advice—as evidenced by the appointment of Dr. Sudkamp as Provost and of Mr. Ulliman as CFO—and to respond in person to tough questions from faculty governance this year, including walking the Faculty Budget Priority Committee and the Senate through the use of the university’s reserves over a multi-year period from the recession of 2009 until the present to provide context for our current Moody’s rating of A2. I pause here to point out that Wright State did not furlough faculty or staff during the recession as so many universities did. Employing reserves to maintain our academic quality at that time was a decision the Faculty commend highly. We value the administration’s accessibility and willingness to work with Faculty; those of us who have served at other universities know what rare qualities those can be in a university administration.

The Faculty have many concerns: we are concerned that the university’s reserves, which stood at some $60 million when we met to discuss the Moody’s rating in the fall continue to be tapped while a plan is being developed, and we are aware that neither the existence of a plan nor its implementation will immediately turn off that tap. We are concerned about the institution’s research profile and what we perceive to be an emphasis on research conducted by auxiliaries as well as the oversight of auxiliaries.
To address those concerns the Faculty Senate has charged a Select Committee on Research Initiatives to inquire into the status, funding, and oversight of past and present research initiatives undertaken under the auspices of the university, including but not limited to the management and direction of the Wright State Research Institute and the relationship of Wright State University to entities such as Wright State Applied Research Corporation, among others. That committee is co-chaired by Dr. Doug Petkie (CoSM, and VP of the Faculty Senate) and Dr. Brian Boyd (Senator for CEHS) and is slated to issue a report before the semester ends.

Additionally the Faculty Budget Priority Committee has requested a report showing real expenditures and revenues to date as compared to the projections given in the balanced budget presented at the June 4, 2015, budget workshop. And we have asked to see what policies govern the creation and amounts of stipends for administrators. Finally the Senate has forwarded to the administration a set of questions regarding determining the need for, selecting, and retaining external consultants, and about the accountability of and for consultants hired by the university. We believe that this information will help the Faculty give good advice to the administration and contribute to institutional transparency.

Finally we remain concerned that your greatest strengths—and here I am addressing Dr. Hopkins and the Board—your optimism and accessibility can also be the institution’s Achilles heel—and we offer you both a piece of advice: when deans and VPs and executives and auxiliaries make their cases for special indulgences, as they will, to let the Provost and CFO do the work you have tasked them to do.

Many faculty are frustrated and unhappy, but we are also Wright
State and we share with the administration and the Trustees real pride in the impact we have had on our students’ lives and the knowledge we have produced. We work hard. We want the university to thrive, and you have always been able to count on us.
I repeat the offer made by Senator Doom at the January Senate, and I extend it to the Board as well: tell us what we can do to help you. And let us see that you are working for us—for the university.
We'll be watching.
XI. PRESENTATION AND POLICY DISCUSSIONS

2016 Presidential Debate: Campus and Community Engagement

Dr. Joseph Keferl, Dean
College of Education and Human Services

Wright State University will be the host site of the first General election Presidential Debate on September 26, 2016. Expanding upon Wright State’s educational mission, plans are underway to make this a true learning experience for everyone.

Think TV and Wright State University recently entered into a collaborative partnership to provide educational programs pertaining to the election and democracy on a local and statewide basis.

Dr. Joseph Keferl, dean of the College of Education and Human Services, outlined the goals of this partnership; namely community and student engagement, education, and enhanced visibility for Wright State, Think TV and the region.

Ms. Gloria Skurski, chief content officer for Think TV, demonstrated some of the many election related educational offerings of PBS LearningMedia, PBS Newshour EXTRA, PBS digital studios, and PBS Kids. She also previewed a co-branded educational hub being developed to showcase all these resources in one easily accessible website.

Ms. Diane Kroplin, Think TV’s manager of education services, spoke on utilizing social media, email, and Constant Contact messages to reach teachers across Ohio with information on targeted lessons for use in their classrooms.

Ohio is very important to the outcome of the election process. Think TV plans to produce a documentary entitled “As Ohio Goes” highlighting Ohio’s pivotal role in presidential elections. “Presidential Election Minutes” are also being developed to showcase Ohio’s influence on election history.
Civic engagement is a core part of our democracy. Dr. Donna Schlagheck, professor emerita Political Science, highlighted some of the many projects underway at Wright State University to engage students and the community in the election process.

This year’s freshmen common text will be Pivotal Tuesdays, a book centered around four pivotal elections in American history. Wright State faculty have created a number of Political Science, Communications and History courses for Fall Semester focused on the election process, media, and social issues. A film series, mock debates, watch parties, voter registration drives, and panels debating the economic impacts of politics are also planned for debate season.

The financial markets rebounded in October, but slipped back slightly in November leaving the Foundation’s endowment portfolio’s total return in the red so far in FY16. The net return for October was 2.4%, while November resulted in a loss of 0.3%. This translates to an overall loss of 3.6% for the fiscal year that began July 1. Private equity returns, which are not included in the above figures, added 33 basis points to the FYTD return. Longer-term return rates were: 1-year -2.1%, 3-year 5.4%, 5-year 6.0% and 10-year 4.7%, with all of these returns underperforming their composite benchmarks. For the fiscal year, fixed income has outperformed equities, although both have produced losses so far. Large cap stocks have outperformed small cap issues. Alternative assets, with the exception of private equity as mentioned above, have also experienced losses during the year with our hedge fund losing 4.8% and our structured credit investment eroding 6.6%. Our new investment in energy debt also has lost value due to depressed oil and gas prices. The endowment portfolio ended November with a market value of $76.4 million, down approximately $3.6 million since the beginning of the year (including capital withdrawals).

Portfolio allocations finally settled out in November and now more closely reflect the allocation formula approved by the Investment Committee late last fiscal year. The delay in achieving this balance can be explained by the fact that most of these reallocations involved alternative assets that are subject to lock-up periods and exit pre-notification requirements. With respect to the private equity allocation, we are subject to periodic capital calls building toward the full allocation. However, it is likely that full allocation will not be reached since the funds are making capital distributions which will decrease the actual investment organically.

The Foundation’s current endowment target allocation, actual allocation, and market values as of November 30, 2015, are presented below:

Planned Giving Update

FY2016 Results as of December 15:

- Eight new planned gift commitments with a projected/recorded gift value of $2,687,265. All are bequest expectancies.
- 11 additional planned gifts are in discussion with an estimated projected value of $5,223,500
- 33 potential planned gifts in early stage discussion

Annual Giving Update

Annual gift solicitation (gifts of up to $10,000) will be more significant during the broad-base appeals made during the public phase of the Rise. Shine. Campaign. Besides enabling the broad constituency base to participate in the Campaign and build toward reaching its overall financial goal, this effort will build the platform for future fundraising efforts by engaging more donors, increasing current individual giving levels, and identifying new major gift prospects.

Fall Phonathon – September 12 – November 12
Phonathon raised nearly $265,000 in FY15 with an improved fulfillment rate of 75%, which is up about 10% over FY14. Results for Fall FY16, $120,296 compared to $140,043 in Fall FY15.

Strategies in FY16

- Two additional weeks during fall and spring Phonathon
- In the spring the call center will not call during spring break as in the past it has not netted much
- Evaluating energy spent on non-donors who have received calls from WSU over the last four Phonathon campaigns and continually decline to make a gift

Fall Direct Mail Appeal
The annual fall direct mail appeal began on October 30 and concluded on November 6. Each academic area was customized with a student story and branded with the Campaign’s Rise. Shine. markings.
New initiatives included:

- Encouraged donors to jump up to the next giving society
- Strategic donor amounts suggested based on their previous giving history

30 day results FY16  $32,692  217 gifts
30 day results FY15  $20,650  164 gifts

Phonathon and Fall Appeal – Multi-Channel Strategy
New in FY16 will be a multi-channel approach for identified segments. Three segments in the fall will pilot our multi-channel strategy: Accountancy, Lake Campus and Alumni Association.
Fall appeal direct mail for these segments dropped on October 12, and Phonathon began its calls to these segments on October 22 with very specific scripting related to the mail piece.

2015 CSIC
FY15 results $523,138, an increase of nearly $23,500 compared to FY14 at the end of the fiscal year. In addition, at the end of the fiscal year 2015 participation was 57% from full time faculty and staff.

2015 CSIC results will be calculated through December 31, 2015. As of November 2014 CSIC $647,604 with 59% participation compared to November 2015 CSIC $634,800 with 57% participation.

Student Giving
Increasing student understanding of philanthropy and student giving to Wright State will receive particular emphasis again this academic year.

In 2015/2016, we will continue to build our #GivingTuesday and Tunnel Takeover activities to increase student philanthropy at Wright State. #GivingTuesday took place on Tuesday, December 1 with a similar approach to that of 2014 which included an alumni giving social media campaign and an on campus event targeted towards the education of philanthropy with our students. In 2015, we raised nearly $2800 more than last year.

Tunnel Takeover planning is in full swing. Students will fundraise during the month of February with a walk taking place on Thursday, February 25th prior to the CSIC Kickoff.

Office of Communications
Public Relations

Office of Communications staff fulfill this role in large part by highlighting brag points and feel-good stories through high-quality articles posted to the Wright State Newsroom and distributed across university websites and on university social media channels. Newsworthy stories are identified by staff and leveraged as pitch tools to external media.

Data point:

The November-December 9, 2015 public relations metrics are as follows:

Debate-related
- Media Clips: 16
- Positive Advertisement Value: $16,141.67

Non debate-related
- Media Clips: 132
- Impressions: Almost 16M
- Positive Advertisement Value: $69,080.93
- Negative Advertisement Value: $43,246.83
- Verbatim Stories or Video: 20

Media clips: Defined as stories about Wright State (most often) or stories that mention Wright State.

Impressions: Defined as the total non-unique estimated viewership, listenership, readership and page views.

Positive Advertisement value: Media coverage that results in positive exposure for Wright State’s brand, the value of which is derived by the amount in dollars that Wright State would have had to pay to advertise in the same space or time that our clips were used in the news.

Negative Advertisement value: The inverse of Positive Advertisement value. Media coverage that is unquestionably negative for Wright State’s brand, the value of which is derived by the amount in dollars that Wright State would have had to pay to advertise in the same space or time that our clips were used in the news.

Verbatim stories: Stories written by Communications staff that were printed or posted exactly as they were written by external news sources. Video shot and edited by Communications staff that was used exactly as provided to external news sources.
Media relations

The Office of Communications views all unexpected media inquiries as opportunities to strengthen or protect the brand of the university. As such, Communications has adopted an organizational structure that allows Wright State to be hyper-responsive to media, which has improved the university’s output of earned media.

Data point:

Media made about 18 requests of Wright State from November – December 9, 2015 that were positive in nature. The Office of Communications successfully fulfilled 100% of the requests. Those fulfilled requests resulted in positive coverage with an estimated advertisement value of about $46,406.83.

Notable negative coverage included the coverage of Wright State's relationship with the Ron Wine Consulting Group, which has resulted in 53 stories or mentions both in the market and at times other markets in the region. Those stories during this time have an estimated negative advertisement value of $43,246.83.

Internal communications

Communications staff members write, edit and post Newsroom stories that post to websites across campus. Stories are also shared through university social media channels. The office also distributes campus-wide email messages from the administration, crime warnings and emergency messages, among many others.

Data point:

The Office of Communications sent 35 campus-wide email communications from September—October 2015. About 22 of those messages were on behalf of colleges, units and other campus organizations. The rest of the messages were sent on behalf of the president, administration or police.

University Initiative Participation

The Office of Communications is also an active participant in university-wide initiatives, which include the 2016 Presidential Debate Planning Committee, Tobacco Free Campus Committee, Emergency Management Committee, Enterprise Print initiative, Total Compensation Advisory Committee, Internal Communications working group, and the Horizon League Ad Hoc Strategic Messaging group.

Social Media

Growth
The university’s main accounts have grown to 121,348 fans, connections, and followers, growing 20 percent so far in 2015.
Wright State now has 167 social media profiles connected to our social media management enterprise system. Over the last 60 recorded days (October 12 through December 10, 2015), the university’s social media content has connected with 57,148 individual users, generating nearly 24.5 million impressions, up 12 percent over last fall. Additionally, embedded links in our Facebook and Twitter content are directly responsible for nearly 42,000 organic clicks through to the Wright State website, not including clicks generated via paid advertising on social media platforms.

Social Media Management Platform Contract
Our 12-month contract with Sprout Social expired on November 30, 2015. The original agreement’s terms have been extended to the end of the current fiscal year, prior to which the contract and details will be re-evaluated.

Sprout Social Tagging
Our social media management platform has rolled out several new features, one of which will now allow us to tag inbound and outbound content with up to five tags from 60 pre-set tags. One of the tags is Debate, which will allow us to better track all social media content on the main channels, whether created internally or externally.

Social Media Managers Group
The social media managers group includes 275 individuals from across both of our campuses, representing virtually every Wright State college and division.

Presentations and Training
The Office of Marketing conducted 20 one-on-one or small group general social media training sessions with various campus personnel over the last two months, as well as conducted a two-hour presentation for the university’s Upward Bound Dayton Public School’s students.

Social Media Videos
We have begun the process of uploading all of our Office of Marketing videos short expressly for Facebook and Twitter onto YouTube (run through the Office of Communications) to expand our reach and variety of content available on that platform. Similarly, the Office of Communications is producing Newsroom videos in a short format that we can also directly upload to Facebook and Twitter. In this way, we can remove barriers between our two offices and make better use of the content produced.

Public relations, media relations and internal communications play a vital role in university operations and branding. Communications staff view interactions in each of these disciplines as invaluable opportunities to strengthen how people view Wright State. Our strategy is to build our brand through repeated positive mentions in the news and social media platforms (earned media) and by increasing university-wide awareness through the sharing of impactful positive news and stories through internal channels (owned media).
Diversity Data

A review of November employee census data since 2012 indicates that the University is making progress on its goal of inclusion as it relates to representation of diverse groups in the WSU workforce. There was a 47% and 43% increase in full-time faculty and staff respectively who belong to U.S. racial/ethnic minority groups between 2012 and 2015. These groups include individuals identifying as African-American, Asian-American, American Indian/Alaskan Native, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic or two or more races. There were increases for each of these groups. Currently, on our campus the largest faculty minority group is Asian American with 123 full-time as of the 2015 employee census. The ethnic group with the largest increase over the last three years in terms of full-time faculty was individuals identifying as African-American. This group saw an 86% increase from 29 to 54. The largest group of minority staff on campus is African-American with 163 full-time as of the 2015 employee census. However the group with the largest increase was those identifying as Hispanic. This group saw a 71% increase from 7 to 12. Racial/ethnic minority faculty make up 22% of the full-time faculty while racial/ethnic minority staff comprise 18% of the full-time staff. There were slight overall increases in the total number of full time faculty and staff during this period (approximately 10 and 16% respectively).

Diversity and Inclusion Programming

The following are few examples of the many activities and events sponsored by Division offices since the last report.

The Tunnel of Oppression: Nine hundred thirty-two (932) WSU students participated in the Tunnel of Oppression program. The program entails participants visiting a series of ‘rooms’ depicting various types of discrimination. Pre and post tests were used to determine the impact on participants. Results suggest that attendees gained a greater understanding of the oppression faced by other groups (i.e., people with disabilities, racial minorities, people who are religious, people who are not Christian, people who identify with the LGBTQ community, people with a size greater than average, women, people with mental illness, and people who are poor) as well as groups of which they are a part; increased awareness of having witnessed the oppression of other groups; being more likely to participate in activities aimed at creating positive change for members of oppressed groups; and increased likelihood of talking about discrimination and/or diversity matters with their friends.

Chosen Family Feast: In addition to several Safe Space Ally Development, Spectrum and Our Voice Panel trainings, the office of LGBTQ+ Affairs held the University’s first Chosen Family Feast. It provided an opportunity for queer students to celebrate the season by sharing a meal with allies as they navigate what for many can be a difficult time of year, returning home to families and social networks that might not be supportive of their gender identity, expression or sexual orientation. The event included a brief program in which two new awards were presented recognizing organizations that advocated for the creation of the office as well as policies and practices that promoted equitable treatment of members of this community.
Native American History Month Activities: November is Native American History Month. The Asian and Native American Center presented several programs some of which are described below.

Lecture: What is so wrong about using Native American sports mascots?

Dr. Larry Zimmerman, Professor of Anthropology & Museum Studies at Indiana University—Purdue University, Indianapolis and Public Scholar of Native American Representation at the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art, discussed why Native American mascots have been so persistent, why many Indians don’t feel “honored” by such mascots while others do, and how their use damages the self-esteem of many Native people.

Documentary Film: Wounded Knee

The 1973 siege of Wounded Knee lasted for 71 days where Native American activists engaged in a standoff with the U.S. government, bringing the nation’s attention to the desperate conditions on Indian reservations. The siege united Native people across tribes, creating a pan-Indian identity and a new path into the future. Wounded Knee, the site of the bloody conflict 125 years ago between the U.S. forces and the Lakota Sioux, the 1973 siege, and where the Pine Ridge reservation is located, remains today as one of the poorest places in America.

Documentary Film: Our Fires Still Burn—The Native American Experience

This compelling one hour documentary invites viewers into the lives of contemporary Native American role models living in the Midwest. It dispels the myth that American Indians have disappeared from the American horizon, and reveals how they continue to persist, heal from the past, confront the challenges of today, keep their culture alive, and make great contributions to society.

Lunch and Learn Series: Should Columbus Day be renamed Indigenous People’s Day?

Campaigns are taking place across the U.S. to change the name of Columbus Day to Indigenous People’s Day. More historians agree Christopher Columbus didn’t actually discover North America in 1492, and more people are coming forward saying it is Native Americans that deserve recognition.

Documentary Film: Black Indian: An American Story

James Earl Jones narrates a stunning and informative documentary "Black Indians: An American Story", which explores issues of racial identity between the mixed-descent peoples of both Native American and African American heritage. James Earl Jones is himself a Black Indian.

Bolinga Brown Bag Speaker Series: This series is a forum to inform, educate and inspire the Wright State community on a variety of topics. This program features African American leaders and scholars in collaboration with the African and African American Studies program, the Greater Dayton community, and the Wright State University community. During November Radwinn Van Wik presented a session on the topic of “Using Poetry and Hip Hop to Tell Stories and Serve Communities” and Dr. Sharon Jones presented on the topic of “Exploring African American Women in the Media”.
Community Collaborations

Staff, in collaboration with others in the University community, continue to foster mutually beneficial partnerships that enhance student learning while making Raider Country a better place in which to live. The following are a few noteworthy activities undertaken since the last report.

Property Survey: Students (both undergraduate and graduate) and staff completed a 74,000 parcel property assessment. The project was run over four months and will provide valuable information to assist with the revitalization and rehabilitation of the city of Dayton.

Westwood Community School: Staff, in collaboration with faculty colleagues and academic administrators, continue to expand the partnership begun earlier this fall with Westwood K-8 school and the Westwood neighborhood. We will use funding from the Federal Work Study Program to expand the number of tutors available in the school. The College of Education and Human Services will provide ten pre-service teachers to the school. The college is also working with the principal and colleagues at WSU (including the School of Professional Psychology and The Boonshoft School of Medicine) to plan and provide a “Mental Health First Aid” workshop.

Pre-college Career Development Workshop: The graduate assistant in the Bolinga Center, who is also a doctoral student in the School of Professional Psychology, facilitated a workshop for students in the Upward Bound Program entitled “Greatness is a Choice”. The program included a series of engaging and interactive activities used to motivate students to plan for career success.

Collaboration with the Jewish Federation of Greater Dayton: Wright State University is collaborating with the Jewish Federation to bring the panel exhibit and lecture program, “A Rebellion of Hope” to Dayton in January. The program’s focus is to help promote understanding of the social dynamics that accompany genocide to make this tragedy less likely to occur. It uses examples from the holocaust to explore this topic.

The Vice President for Multicultural Affairs & Community Engagement continues to be involved with many community partners. Some recent community engagement activities undertaken specifically by the VP for MACE include participating in a “Diversity Dinner” hosted by Lt. General Thompson on Wright Patterson Air Force Base, providing a welcome to pre-college age students attending the Modern Language department’s Arabic Immersion Day, serving on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Greater Dayton, representing the University on the Welcome Dayton steering committee, providing diversity training for the Board of Directors for the Dayton YWCA, continuing development of the Women’s Leadership Collaborative of Greater Dayton, and presenting at the National Association of Multicultural Education’s annual conference (just to name a few).

Office of the Vice President for Research

Research Compliance - Kelli Tittle, J.D., was hired as the HIPPA/Privacy Compliance Officer, beginning January 11. Ms. Tittle is a WSU alumna, holds a JD from the University of Dayton, and has worked for Premier Health for the last 6 years in several compliance roles.

Research Council at its January meeting discussed exceptions to the university’s negotiated F&A rate, and received detailed briefings regarding Environmental Health and Safety, Research Development, RSP data, WSRI and Ohio Federal Research Network activity, Technology Transfer Office, Facility Security, and Research Compliance. Council was notified of the establishment of a Faculty Senate Select Committee on WSU Research Initiatives.

Cumulative research funding awards and proposals for the first half of FY16 are up compared to the same time period last year.
