

F-2 Student Visa Enrollment

The LEAP Intensive English Program at Wright State University is committed to providing academic English instruction to a wide range of learners. Individuals holding an F-2 visa are welcome to study in LEAP.

There are 4 requisite courses offered by LEAP which carry either a single or double course weight:

Single Courses:	Double Courses:
Grammar (GR) Listening & Speaking (L/S)	Writing and Writing Workshop (W/W) Integrated Skills (IS)

F-2 Students have four options for course selection in any given semester:

Option #1	Option #2	Option #3	Option #4
GR + W/W	L/S + IS	GR + IS	L/S + W/W

F-2 students enrolled in part-time study in the LEAP program are subject to the following policies and procedures:

- F-2 students must pass all courses in a level to be eligible for promotion to the next level.
- F-2 students are not eligible for the Level 4 TOEFL Waiver.
- F-2 students who place into Level 4 may take one Level 4 class (Advanced Academic Success, Advanced Reading and Writing, or Test Preparation) per semester.
- F-2 students intending to change to a full-time course load will be re-tested for level placement and must apply for a change of status to F1 visa.

F-2 students enrolled in the LEAP program are entitled to all of the resources and services that are available to LEAP students provided by Wright State University.

F-2 students enrolled in the LEAP program are subject to the same policies as full-time LEAP students. Excessive absences or poor classroom performance may result in dismissal from the program.

SEVIS parameters of allowable F-2 study in LEAP:

- F-2 spouses may not engage in a full course of study.
- F-2 spouses and children are permitted to enroll in "less than a full course of study," even if the course of study done part-time leads to or counts towards a degree. NOTE: All international applicants to LEAP must be 18 years old.
- Sets forth the requirement that to pursue full time study other than that permitted by this section, the F-2 must apply for and obtain a change of status to F-1, J-1, or M-1.
