

ERNST MACH'S VIENNA: THE PLACE OF HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY IN SCIENCE

The Erik C. Banks Memorial Lecture in Philosophy

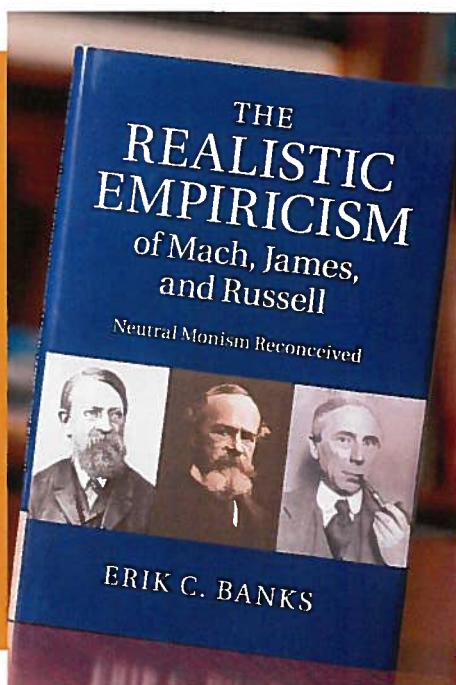

Thursday, March 22
3:30–5 p.m.

Discovery Room
163 Student Union

Don Howard, Ph.D., is a professor of philosophy at the University of Notre Dame and the former director and fellow of the Reilly Center for Science, Technology, and Values there. He will present the story of Viennese physicist Ernst Mach, who initiated a long and influential tradition of integrating history and philosophy into science pedagogy, and the example of Albert Einstein, who promoted a similar integration of the disciplines.
