

Wright Women's Leadership NETWORK

Learning to Lean In: Developing Women Leaders in Higher Ed

Tuesday, September 25th, 2pm

Student Union, Endeavor

Donna Chrobot-Mason, Ph.D.

*Associate Professor & Director, Center for Organizational Leadership
Director of UC Women Lead
University of Cincinnati*

Nationally recognized scholar and senior Partner for RCSN, an executive recruiting and leadership consulting firm, Dr. Chrobot-Mason's focus is on leadership across differences and strategies for creating organizational practices, policies, and a climate that support diversity and foster intergroup collaboration. Donna holds a PhD and Master's degree in Applied Psychology from the University of Georgia. She teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in Human Resources, Diversity, and Organizational Leadership.

Registration required. Seating is limited.

Priority registration will be offered to members of the Wright Women's Leadership Network.

Questions? Contact Stephanie A. Goodwin, Director for Faculty Development & Leadership, fdl@wright.edu.